Dear Mayor Bowser, Chairman Mendelson, Councilmembers,

Please find attached for your review a Report and accompanying appendices that provide recommendations from the D.C. Criminal Code Reform Commission ("Commission") for certain changes to District criminal statutes. The recommendations were approved by the Commission's statutorily-designated Advisory Group in April 2017 and address several of the topics specified in the agency's statute. (See D.C. Code §§ 3-152 - 3-253.)

The recommendations are an essential step toward modernization of the District's criminal statutes. Clearly archaic and outdated criminal statutes like "Playing games in streets" should be repealed. Outdated references to the District's "Workhouse" and unnecessarily gendered language should be corrected. Sections of criminal statutes that courts have held to be unconstitutional and are no longer used in practice should be struck from the D.C. Code. The possibility of being convicted of judicially-created common law offenses, which have not been created by the legislature nor been used in decades, should be eliminated. Extraneous procedural and non-criminal provisions in Title 22 of the D.C. Code should be relocated to other titles, thereby limiting Title 22 to a compilation of District criminal offenses and penalties. Lastly, the entire text of Title 22 of the D.C. Official Code should be enacted as a single law to ease the administrative burden of making future amendments.

Given the relatively uncontroversial nature of these recommendations and the immediate improvements they will bring to the clarity and functionality of the District's criminal statutes, the Commission submits this Report and accompanying appendices for Mayoral and Council consideration as the agency develops further reform recommendations pursuant to its statute. Please do not hesitate to contact the Commission with any questions about these recommendations or the agency's continued work.

Sincerely,

Richard Schmechel Executive Director

INTRODUCTION

This Report and the accompanying Appendices consolidate and update prior recommendations and draft bills concerning the District's criminal statutes that were developed by the D.C. Sentencing Commission (Sentencing Commission). In September 2015, the Sentencing Commission unanimously approved and submitted to the Council and Mayor recommendations and several corresponding draft bills that would amend various criminal statutes and enable the adoption of Title 22 as an enacted title of the D.C. Code. The Council did not subsequently take action on the draft recommendations or draft legislation.

The D.C. Criminal Code Reform Commission (Criminal Code Reform Commission), pursuant to its new mandate,¹ has reviewed, updated, and consolidated the Sentencing Commission's September 2015 recommendations and corresponding draft bills in this Report. This Report's recommendations and draft legislation differ slightly, but significantly, from those the Sentencing Commission submitted in September 2015. The chief differences are: 1) this Report resolves certain ambiguities in the current text of Title 22 that were noted but left to legislative resolution in the Sentencing Commission's recommendations; 2) this Report addresses the few criminal laws that have been passed since September 2015; 3) this Report makes fewer technical amendments to non-Title 22 criminal statutes and some statutes referencing federal property; and 4) The portion of the draft legislation that enacts Title 22 directly amends the text to reflect the recommended revisions for that title. These minor changes have allowed the Criminal Code Reform Commission to combine the recommendations into one updated bill.

¹ The Criminal Code Reform Commission Act of 2016, part of the Council's Fiscal Year 2017 Budget Support Act of 2016, established the Criminal Code Reform Commission and transferred staff and responsibility for developing recommendations to reform the criminal code from the Sentencing Commission. The Criminal Code Reform Commission's mandate is as follows:

⁽a) By October 1, 2018, the Commission shall submit to the Mayor and the Council comprehensive criminal code reform recommendations that revise the language of the District's criminal statutes to:

⁽²⁾ Apply consistent, clearly articulated definitions;

⁽³⁾ Describe all elements, including mental states, that must be proven;

⁽⁴⁾ Reduce unnecessary overlap and gaps between criminal offenses;

⁽⁵⁾ Eliminate archaic and unused offenses;

⁽⁶⁾ Adjust penalties, fines, and the gradation of offenses to provide for proportionate penalties;

⁽⁷⁾ Organize existing criminal statutes in a logical order;

⁽⁸⁾ Identify any crimes defined in common law that should be codified, and propose recommended language for codification, as appropriate;

⁽⁹⁾ Identify criminal statutes that have been held to be unconstitutional and recommend their removal or amendment;

⁽¹⁰⁾ Propose such other amendments as the Commission believes are necessary; and ⁽¹¹⁾ Enable the adoption of Title 22 as an enacted title of the District of Columbia Official Code.

This Report's recommendations are presented in six parts: I. Archaic and unused offenses and provisions to repeal; II. Technical amendments to correct outdated language; III. Unconstitutional statutes to amend; IV. Common law offenses to repeal; V. Relocation of Title 22 provisions to other D.C. Code titles; and VI. Enactment of Title 22.

Appendices to this Report provide additional detail on the Criminal Code Reform Commission's recommendations, and include relevant statistics (Appendix VII), comments from the agency's Advisory Group (Appendix VIII), and a draft bill that would pass the recommended revisions into law (Appendix IX). The bill in Appendix IX contains multiple sections, some making changes to titles other than Title 22, and one section that both enacts and makes certain changes to Title 22. Although the bill is lengthy and contains a copy of Title 22 offenses for purposes of enactment, the bill is designed to not change any laws other than those specified in this Report.

Adoption of the Criminal Code Reform Commission's recommendations in this Report and passage of the bill in Appendix IX would significantly improve the District's criminal statutes, particularly Title 22 of the D.C. Code, which includes most crimes that are not concerned with regulation of an industry. Several archaic and unused offenses, such as "Playing Games in Streets,"² would be repealed, and outdated references, such as to the "Workhouse of the District of Columbia," would be updated. Language in current statutes that has been ruled unconstitutional by District courts would be amended and the specter of common law crimes, whose authority is old judicial opinions, rather than legislation, would be definitively ended. Title 22 of the D.C. Code, the title originally designed to contain only criminal offenses, would be reorganized such that non-criminal and procedural matters are removed to other titles. And Title 22 would be "enacted" as law of its own, easing the administrative burden of future amendments to Title 22.

The Criminal Code Revision Advisory Group (Advisory Group), a statutorilydesignated group comprised of five voting and two non-voting members,³ has reviewed

² D.C. Code § 22-1308:

It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to play the game of football, or any other game with a ball, in any of the streets, avenues, or alleys in the City of Washington; nor shall it be lawful for any person or persons to play the game of bandy, shindy, or any other game by which a ball, stone, or other substance is struck or propelled by any stick, cane, or other substance in any street, avenue, or alley in the City of Washington, under a penalty of not more than $5 for each and every such offense.

³ The current voting members of the Advisory Group are: 1) Don Braman, Associate Professor of Law, George Washington University School of Law (Council Appointee); 2) Paul Butler, Professor of Law, Georgetown University Law Center (Council Appointee); 3) Renata Kendrick Cooper, Special Counsel for Policy and Legislative Affairs, United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia (Designee of the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia); 4) Laura Hankins, General Counsel, Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia (Designee of the District of Columbia); and 5) Dave Rosenthal, Senior Assistant Attorney General, Office of the Attorney General (Designee of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia). The current non-voting members of the Advisory Group are: 1) Chanell Autrey, Legislative Counsel, Committee on the Judiciary (Designee of the Chairperson of the Council Committee on the Judiciary); and this Report and its Appendices. The Advisory Group received a copy of the First Draft of the Report and Appendices on November 2, 2016 with a request for written comments by January 13, 2017. The Criminal Code Reform Commission revised its First Draft and Appendices based on three sets of written comments that were timely received. The Advisory Group received a copy of the Second Draft of the Report and Appendices on January 25, 2017 with a request for written comments by February 27, 2017. No written comments were received on the Second Draft. The Criminal Code Reform Commission performed a final review of the draft recommendations and submitted a Voting Draft and Appendices to the Advisory Group on March 3, 2017.

On April 5, 2017 all five voting members of the Advisory Group approved the final recommendations of the Criminal Code Reform Commission on these matters. A copy of the Advisory Group's written comments on the First and Second Drafts of the recommendations is attached as Appendix VIII of this Report.

I. ARCHAIC AND UNUSED OFFENSES AND PROVISIONS TO REPEAL

Advancing its legislative mandate to "eliminate archaic and unused offenses,"⁴ the Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified multiple D.C. Code offenses that it recommends for repeal. For information on the review process originally used to identify these offenses, see page 4 of the "Report on Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

A. Findings

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified twelve offenses⁵ and two penalty provisions⁶ scattered across eight titles of the D.C. Code as archaic and unused, based, in part, upon a review of available adult sentencing and charging data.⁷ The fact

Code § 22-1012(a) (Abandonment of maimed or diseased animal; destruction of diseased animals; disposition of animal or vehicle on arrest of driver; scientific experiments); D.C. Code § 22-1308 (Playing games in streets); D.C. Code § 22-3303 (Grave robbery; buying or selling dead bodies); D.C. Code § 22-3320 (Obstructing public road; removing milestones); D.C. Code § 3-206 (Unlawful acts); D.C. Code § 4-125 (Assisting child to leave institution without authority; concealing such child; duty of police); D.C. Code § 9-433.01 (Permit required; exceptions); D.C. Code § 34-701 (False statements in securing approval for stock issue); D.C. Code § 34-707 (Destruction of apparatus or appliance of Commission); D.C. Code § 36-153 (Unauthorized use, defacing, or sale of registered vessel); D.C. Code § 47-102 (Total indebtedness not to be increased).

⁶ D.C. Code § 8-305; D.C. Code § 9-433.02.

⁷ To determine whether an offense is unused the Criminal Code Reform Commission reviewed two data sets it currently has access to: 1) a list of all felonies or misdemeanors charged or sentenced from 2009 - 2014; and 2) a list of all felonies for which a defendant had been sentenced for 2010 - 2015. Although the two data sets overlap, they were provided on different dates and contain slightly different data. The data sets were provided by the D.C. Sentencing Commission using its Guidelines Reporting Information Data System (GRID System). The first data set is comprised of data received on March 10, 2014 (covering that an offense was not recently charged in adult court was a necessary, but not sufficient, condition for being deemed "archaic and unused" for purposes of this Report. The Criminal Code Reform Commission also sought consensus approval of its Advisory Group as to a list of "archaic and unused" offenses for purposes of this Report.

Appendix I lists the text of these archaic and unused offenses and provisions. The draft legislation to repeal these offenses is in Titles 1 and 5 of the bill in Appendix IX. The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends repeal of an additional procedural provision as archaic and unused, D.C. Code § 22-2714, but neither the list of the archaic and unused provisions in Appendix I nor the draft legislation in Appendix IX contain § 22-1714 due to possible Home Rule Act restrictions.⁸

An example of one of the offenses recommended for repeal as archaic and unused is D.C. Code § 47-102, "Total indebtedness not to be increased," which provides:

There shall be no increase of the amount of the total indebtedness of the District of Columbia existing on June 11, 1878; and any officer or person who shall knowingly increase, or aid or abet in increasing, such total indebtedness, shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, on ^{2009-2013),} and June 2, 2015 (covering 2014), and the second set is comprised of data received on April 6, 2016. It should be noted that the GRID System only includes adult information; it does not include juvenile information. It should also be noted that the Sentencing Commission gave notice in its 2015 Annual Report that some data had not been properly accounted for in previously provided data request responses: See page 33 of the D.C. Sentencing Commission and Criminal Code Revision Commission 2015 Annual Report, available at:

http://scdc.dc.gov/sites/default/files/dc/sites/scdc/publication/attachments/Annual%20Report%202015%20 Website%205-2-16.pdf (last accessed 10/27/16). The Sentencing Commission also has given notice that there may be data reliability and validity issues with the supplied GRID data for 2009 and misdemeanors.

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has requested updated charging and sentencing data to confirm that the offenses identified as archaic and unused in this Report were not charged in 2010-2015, but has not yet received a response. With few exceptions, the offenses identified as archaic were passed by Congress in the late 19th or early 20th century and have undergone little or no subsequent amendment. There are two exceptions: 1) D.C. Code § 4-125 (Assisting child to leave institution without authority; concealing such child; duty of police), enacted in 1942; and 2) D.C. Code §§ 9–433.01 and 9-433.02 (Cutting Trenches in Highways), enacted in 2000, but identical to immediately preceding D.C. Code §§ 9–431.01 and 9-431.02, which were enacted in 1898. The reason for the unusual duplication of statutes for Cutting Trenches in Highways is unclear, as only one set of these statutes is necessary to prohibit the described conduct. The newer versions of the statutes rather than the originals are recommended for repeal, out of concern that the 2000 version may have been enacted in error.

The Criminal Code Reform Commission was unable to locate a single published D.C. Court of Appeals (DCCA) decision involving a defendant charged with, or convicted of, any of the offenses identified as archaic and unused.

conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding 10 years, and by fine not more than the amount set forth in [§ 22-3571.01].

Apart from an amendment to the fine amount for the offense under the Fine Proportionality Act in 2013, this felony has not changed since passed by Congress in 1878. The statute predates the passage of the federal Antideficiency Act⁹ and other laws addressing conduct that causes unauthorized indebtedness.

As noted in a D.C. Council Committee Report on a prior bill that repealed crimes determined to be outdated,¹⁰ repealing archaic and unused crimes benefits the District's criminal justice system in multiple ways. Repeal of archaic and unused offenses prevents the "improper application of outmoded and unnecessary criminal penalties" and helps to "simplify the code so that it is more fair and transparent."¹¹ There is no loss to the Code's effectiveness because the conduct prohibited by these archaic and unused offenses is either covered by another broader or more recent provision of law, or is no longer a public concern.

B. Differences from 2015 Draft Legislation

With regard to the repeal of archaic and unused offenses and provisions, there are a few differences between this Report and the Sentencing Commission's recommendations and draft bill that were submitted to the Council in September 2015.

First, the archaic and unused offenses discussed in this Report that are currently located in Title 22 have simply been deleted from title 1 of Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22. These archaic and unused offenses will no longer be law if the legislation in Appendix IX is passed. The archaic and unused offenses that would be repealed from Title 22 are marked as "Repealed" in title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX. In the future, the Criminal Code Reform Commission plans to finalize a recommendation for the reorganization of Title 22 that eliminates the sections of the enacted Title 22 draft legislation marked as "Repealed."

Second, the Sentencing Commission in September 2015 recommended deleting as an archaic and unused offense § 22-3306, Defacing books, manuscripts, publications, or works of art. In this Report and the accompanying legislation in Appendix IX, however, § 22-3306 is not included for deletion to avoid possible Home Rule Act concerns.¹²

¹² Section 22-3306 specifically mentions property of the United States. D.C. Code § 1-206.02(a)(3) ("The Council shall have no authority to . . Enact any act, or enact any act to amend or repeal any Act of Congress, which concerns the functions or property of the United States or which is not restricted in its application exclusively in or to the District.").

Third, the Sentencing Commission in September 2015 recommended deleting as an archaic and unused five property offenses that appear to be covered by other District property offenses: (1) Destroying or defacing public records (D.C. Code § 22-3307); (2) Destroying boundary markers (D.C. Code § 22-3309); (3) Destroying or defacing building material for streets (D.C. Code § 22-3313); (4) Destroying cemetery railing or tomb (D.C. Code § 22-3314); and (5) Placing obstructions on or displacement of railway tracks (D.C. Code § 22-3319). In this Report and the accompanying legislation in Appendix IX, however, these five offenses are not included for deletion due to differing opinions by the Advisory Group.

Finally, the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends two conforming amendments to accommodate the deletion of two of the archaic and unused offenses, D.C. Official Code § 8-304¹³ and § 36-153.¹⁴ The conforming amendments are included in title 5 of the proposed legislation in Appendix IX. The Criminal Code Reform Commission also recommends that Council's Office of the General Counsel amend the title of § 36-154 to "Use or possession of vessel without purchase" to more accurately describe the offense codified therein.

II. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS TO CORRECT OUTDATED LANGUAGE

Further addressing its legislative mandate to "use clear and plain language,"¹⁵ the Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified statutory provisions throughout the D.C. Code that it recommends for technical amendments, including: 1) references to government agencies that have been succeeded by another agency or renamed (e.g., "Corporation Counsel" or "Workhouse of the District of Columbia"); 2) unnecessarily gendered language; and 3) statutory designations of prosecutorial authority in clear violation of the Home Rule Act under the DCCA's 2009 ruling in In re Crawley.¹⁶ For information on the review process originally used to identify these technical amendments, see pages 6-7 of the "Report on Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

A. Findings

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified thirty-seven statutes in eleven titles of the D.C. Code that contain outdated language within the above stated parameters. The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends corrective technical amendments that will clarify the D.C. Code without making any substantive change to the law.

The technical amendments are listed in Appendix II. The draft legislation to make these amendments is in titles 1 and 2 of the bill in Appendix IX. Outdated references to institutions were located in fifteen offenses, many of which pertain to "Corporation Counsel," which is now the Attorney General for the District of Columbia. Twenty-four instances of unnecessarily gendered language and two instances of clearly improper delegations of prosecutorial authority under In re Crawley were identified.¹⁷

An example of an outdated, improper delegation of prosecutorial authority is D.C. Code § 2-381.09, the District's false claims statute, which states that, "The Attorney General for the District of Columbia shall prosecute violations of this section." However, D.C. Code § 23-101 specifies a limited set of offenses that may be prosecuted by the Attorney General for the District of Columbia (OAG), while all other crimes are to be prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia (USAO). The D.C. Court of Appeals held in In re Crawley that an OAG prosecution of the false claims statute was improper. The court reasoned that, per D.C. Code § 23-101, the false claims statute should have been prosecuted by the USAO, and, per the Home Rule Act, the Council may not enact legislation that affects the "duties or powers" of the U.S. Attorney's Office.¹⁸ Unfortunately, neither the false claims statute nor the other statutes that clearly and improperly delegate prosecutorial authority have been corrected in the D.C. Code to reflect the holding in In re Crawley.

B. Differences from 2015 Draft Legislation

With regard to the identification of criminal statutes in need of technical amendment, there are a few differences between the process followed for this Report and the Sentencing Commission's recommendations and draft bill that were submitted to the Council in September 2015. For this Report and its accompanying legislation, the Criminal Code Reform Commission examined all statutes in Title 22, as well as a smaller set of non-Title 22 offenses that are criminal in nature. The non-Title 22 offenses were limited to offenses that are actually in use, based on two sets of data provided by the D.C. Sentencing Commission: 1) a list of all felonies or misdemeanors charged or sentenced from 2009 - 2014; and 2) a list of all felonies for which a defendant had been sentenced for 2010 - 2015.¹⁹

¹⁸ D.C. Code § 1-206.02(a)(8).

¹⁹ Although there is some overlap between the two data sets, they were provided on different dates and contain slightly different data. The first data set is comprised of data received on March 10, 2014 (covering 2009-2013), and June 2, 2015 (covering 2014), and the second set is comprised of data received on April 6, 2016. As noted above, these two data sets were provided by the D.C. Sentencing Commission, which generated the sets using its Guidelines Reporting Information Data System (GRID System). It should be noted that the GRID System only includes adult information; it does not include juvenile information. It

In addition, for the offenses that were included in the 2015 Report that was submitted to the Council, additional instances of gendered language were identified and corrected.²⁰

Finally, title I of the legislation in Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, makes technical amendments directly to the statutes in Title 22. These changes will become law if the legislation in Appendix IX is passed and Title 22 becomes an enacted title.

III. UNCONSTITUTIONAL STATUTES TO AMEND

In response to its mandate to "[i]dentify criminal statutes that have been held to be unconstitutional and recommend their removal or amendment," the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends amendments to two criminal offenses. For information on the process used to review relevant court opinions, see page 8 of the "Report on Enactment of the D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

A. Findings

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified two current D.C. Code offenses as containing unconstitutional provisions, and both are recommended for amendment: D.C. Code § 7-2506.01, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition (UA), and D.C. Code § 22-4512, Alteration of Identifying Marks of Weapons (AIM).²¹ Titles 1 and 3 in the bill in Appendix IX amend both offenses.

1. D.C. Code § 7-2506.01, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition (UA).

should also be noted that the Sentencing Commission gave notice in its 2015 Annual Report that some data had not been properly accounted for in previously provided data request responses:

See page 33 of the D.C. Sentencing Commission and Criminal Code Revision Commission 2015 Annual Report, available at:

http://scdc.dc.gov/sites/default/files/dc/sites/scdc/publication/attachments/Annual%20Report%202 015%20Website%205-2-16.pdf (last accessed 10/27/16). The Sentencing Commission also has given notice that there may be data reliability and validity issues with the supplied GRID data for 2009 and misdemeanors.

²⁰ D.C. Code §§ 22-302; 22-722; 22-935; 22-1311; 22-1406; 22-1702; 22-1810; 22-3214.01; 22-3226.01; 22-4504.02; 24-241.05; 47-2829; 50-2201.05b. Appendix II contains the specific revisions to these statutes. Several of the Title 22 statutes for which the 2015 Report recommended technical revisions are now recommended for relocation out of Title 22. Of these statutes, an instance of unnecessarily gendered language was identified and recommended for correction in § 22-2714. Appendix V lists the Title 22 statutes recommended for the to those statutes.

²¹ The Sentencing Commission previously gave the Council notice of the unconstitutionality of D.C. Code § 22-2511, Presence in a Motor Vehicle Containing a Firearm (PMVCF), in its 2013 Annual Report. See D.C. Sentencing and Criminal Code Revision Commission 2013 Annual Report, at 84-85 (April 25, 2014). The Council has since repealed the PMVCF statute. See License to Carry a Pistol Amendment Act of 2014, Act No. 20-621 (D.C. Law 20-279), effective June 16, 2015.

The DCCA has held that the crime of UA unconstitutionally punishes behavior that is protected by the Second Amendment.²² The DCCA also held, however, that a conviction for UA is permissible if the government adopts the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt an additional element not present in the statute.²³ Thus, the statute has not been declared wholly unconstitutional, and the defect may be cured by incorporating the DCCA's holding into the text of the offense.²⁴ Specifically, if the statute is amended to include the extra element of the offense now required by the DCCA, then the offense should survive constitutional scrutiny in the future.²⁵

The DCCA ruling of unconstitutionality appears to be widely accepted in current legal practice, but has not resulted in a change to the D.C. Code. Pattern jury instructions frequently used in the District already recognize that the government has the burden of proving this extra element at trial.²⁶

To bring clarity to the criminal code, the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the additional element deemed constitutionally necessary be explicitly codified in the statute. The agency has amended the offense language in title 3 of Appendix IX to: 1) ensure that the constitutional rights of persons in the District are respected; 2) clarify to the general public what precisely constitutes the crime of UA; and 3) guide practitioners in the future.

2. D.C. Code § 22-4512, Alteration of Identifying Marks of Weapons (AIM).

The DCCA has held that a portion of the AIM statute is unconstitutional.²⁷ AIM punishes a person who alters or obliterates serial numbers on firearms. Unlike UA, the DCCA has not declared the statutory elements of the offense to be unconstitutional. Rather, the DCCA evaluated a smaller provision within the AIM statute and held that it violated due process.

The unconstitutional provision in the AIM statute is its permissive inference, or statutory presumption. In criminal law, a permissive inference is a provision that allows a jury to assume one fact from another. Thus, a statute may require that the government prove some fact, X. But the statute may also say that, rather than proving X, the government may instead prove Y, from which the jury may infer X, in order to meet its burden of proving X.

In AIM, one element the government must prove is that the defendant obliterated serial marks on a firearm. But the statute's permissive inference allows the government to instead prove only that the defendant possessed a weapon with obliterated serial marks. The statutory presumption permits the jury to infer that a person who possesses a weapon with obliterated markings is the same person who did, in fact, obliterate those markings, thus rendering that person guilty of AIM.

Applying Supreme Court precedent that requires a permissive inference to survive a "more likely than not" test, the DCCA has held that the AIM statute's permissive inference violates due process. The DCCA reasoned that because guns frequently change hands it is not "more likely than not" that a person who merely possesses a weapon with obliterated markings is the same person who obliterated the markings.²⁸ The court accordingly held that the permissive inference is unconstitutional.

To bring clarity to the criminal code, the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the statutory presumption, which DCCA case law says renders the offense unconstitutional, be deleted. The agency has amended the language for D.C. Code § 22-4512 in title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, to remove the AIM statute's permissive inference.

B. Differences from 2015 Draft Legislation

There are no substantive differences between the amendment of UA and AIM in this Report and the Sentencing Commission's recommendations and draft bill that were submitted to the Council in September 2015. However, title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, amends the AIM offense, D.C. Code § 22-4512, directly. When the legislation in Appendix IX is passed, the revised AIM offense will become the law because Title 22 will be an enacted title.

IV. COMMON LAW OFFENSES TO REPEAL AND FURTHER CODIFY

To "[i]dentify any crimes defined in common law that should be codified,"²⁹ the Criminal Code Reform Commission examined District judicial opinions and D.C. Code criminal offenses. For more information on the review process used to identify these offenses, see pages 11-12 of the "Report on Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

²⁹ See supra note 1.

A. Findings

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified nineteen crimes whose elements are currently defined only in court opinions (common law), rather than in the D.C. Code. For sixteen of these offenses,³⁰ statutes in the current D.C. Code codify the penalties of the offenses, but not the elements. For example, current D.C. Code § 22-2105 merely states "Whoever is guilty of manslaughter shall be sentenced to a period of imprisonment not exceeding 30 years. In addition to any other penalty provided under this section, a person may be fined an amount not more than the amount set forth in § 22-3571.01."

The remaining three common law offenses that the Criminal Code Reform Commission identified are not mentioned anywhere in the D.C. Code: 1) negligent escape; ³¹ 2) disturbing public worship; ³² and 3) being a common scold. ³³

Negligent escape occurs when a "party arrested or imprisoned doth escape against the will of him that arrested or imprisoned him, and is not freshly pursued and taken again, before he hath lost the sight of him."³⁴ In other words, it is a crime for police or jail officials to fail to pursue an escapee. The last documented case of a defendant being prosecuted and convicted of this offense was in 1948.³⁵ The offenses of disturbing public worship³⁶ and being a common scold³⁷ arise from cases decided in the early 1800s.

An individual could potentially be held liable for any of these three offenses recognized in common law because the reception statute in D.C. Code § 45-401 recognizes the validity of common law offenses.³⁸ Moreover, given the broad scope of ³⁰ D.C. Code § 11-944 (Contempt); D.C. Code § 22-401 (Assault with intent to kill, rob, or poison or to commit first degree sexual abuse, second degree sexual abuse or child sexual abuse); D.C. Code § 22-402 (Assault with intent to commit mayhem or with a dangerous weapon); D.C. Code § 22-403 (Assault with intent to commit any other offense); D.C. Code § 22-404 (Assault or threatened assault in a menacing manner; stalking); D.C. Code § 22-406 (Mayhem or malicious disfiguring); D.C. Code § 22-407 (Threats to do bodily harm); D.C. Code § 22-1301 (Affrays); D.C. Code § 22-1803 (Attempts to commit a crime); D.C. Code § 22-1805 (Aiding and abetting); D.C. Code § 22-1805a (Conspiracy); D.C. Code § 22-1806 (Accessories after the fact); D.C. Code § 22-2105 (Manslaughter); D.C. Code § 22-2107 (Solicitation of murder or other crimes of violence); D.C. Code § 22-2722 (Keeping bawdy or disorderly houses); D.C. Code § 48-904.09 (Attempt, conspiracy for drug offenses).

Some of the above-cited statutory sections arguably contain multiple offenses. However, for purposes of tallying common law crimes the prohibitions in these statutory sections were treated as one offense.

³⁸ The District's reception statute, § 45-401, states that "the common law . . . in force in Maryland on February 27, 1801 ... shall remain in force except insofar as the same are inconsistent with, or are replaced by, some provision of the 1901 Code." By 1801. Maryland had adopted all British common law as of the reception statute, it is possible that many additional common law offenses exist that simply have not been charged or recorded in the District's appellate case law.³⁹

Common law offenses may still result in substantial penalties. The District also has a general penalty statute which provides for a penalty of up to $1,000 or up to five (5) years imprisonment, or both, for violations of "any criminal offense not covered by the provisions of any section of this [D.C.] Code, or of any general law of the United States not locally inapplicable in the District of Columbia."⁴⁰ Together with the reception statute, the general penalty statute of the D.C. Code allows for convictions of crimes described only in judicial opinions, including opinions in other American jurisdictions and England⁴¹ that may date back centuries.

The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the sixteen common law offenses that have statutorily defined penalties be fully defined in the D.C. Code, and that the three additional common law offenses be repealed. Pursuant to its mandate, the Criminal Code Reform Commission will propose recommended language to codify many of the offenses that currently only have a penalty codified in the code. In addition, the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends amending the District's reception statute, D.C. Code § 45-401, which would abolish any unidentified common law offenses. Amending the District's reception statute, as proposed in title 4 of the bill in Appendix IX, would not affect the validity of the District's codified criminal statutes, including D.C. Official Code § 22-1321.

All common law offenses identified by the Criminal Code Reform Commission are listed in Appendix IV.

B. Differences from 2015 Legislation

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified two additional common law offenses that were not included in the Sentencing Commission's recommendations and draft bill that were submitted to the Council in September 2015. In two cases from the early 1800s, defendants were charged with the common law offenses of disturbing public worship⁴² and being a common scold.⁴³ The Criminal Code Reform Commission was unable to find any subsequent cases in which defendants were prosecuted for either of these common law offenses in the last 180 years, but presumably they could still be prosecuted under the reception statute in D.C. Code § 45-401 and penalized for up to five years under D.C. Code § 22-1807.

Therefore, under the reception statute, any common law offenses recognized under British common law as of 1776 are prosecutable offenses under current District law. It is possible that additional common law offenses exist that have never been charged in the District.

⁴¹ When the District was formed in 1801, the portion of the District that territorially had belonged to Maryland adopted Maryland common law as of 1801. Maryland common law, in turn, reflected the adoption of English common law as it existed as of November 3, 1776, except as explicitly repealed by the Maryland legislature. See Wisneski v. State, 921 A.2d 273, 279-80 (Md. 2007); M.D. Const. Decl. of Rights, art. III.

V. RELOCATION OF TITLE 22 PROVISIONS TO OTHER D.C. CODE TITLES

Advancing its legislative mandate to "organize existing criminal statutes in a logical order,"⁴⁴ the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends relocating several provisions from Title 22 of the D.C. Code to other titles. For information on the review process used to identify these statutes, see page 15 of the "Report on Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

A. Findings

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified 127 statutes in Title 22 that it recommends for relocation to other D.C. Code titles. In many instances the Criminal Code Reform Commission has developed suggestions on the appropriate new title for these relocated statutes. All Title 22 statutes recommended for relocation (and, if applicable, suggestions for the title to which they should be relocated) are listed in Appendix V. Appendix V also lists technical amendments that the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends for these relocated statutes.

For example, Chapter 42A of Title 22 (D.C. Code §§ 22-4231 through 22-4244) creates and describes the duties of the D.C. Criminal Justice Coordinating Council. None of these statutes describe a criminal offense, and it is unclear why the provisions should not be moved to Title 3 of the D.C. Code which includes the organic legislation for other criminal justice bodies such as the Sentencing Commission. Another example is Chapter 38, Sexual Psychopaths, which sets forth the requirements for the civil commitment of certain criminal offenders, but contains no actual criminal prohibitions. These types of statutes logically belong in other titles of the D.C. Code.

Because Title 22 is not an enacted title, no bill is necessary to relocate the identified statutory provisions out of the title. The Council's Office of the General Counsel will determine where to relocate these titles; the Council need not decide where to move these relocated titles.

However, conforming amendments will be necessary throughout the entire D.C. Code to update references to the relocated statutes. Specifically, before the proposed enactment legislation in title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX can be passed, the following statutes in Title 22 will need conforming amendments because they refer to statutes that are relocated out of Title 22:

⁴³ Royall, 27 F. Cas. at 910.

⁴⁴ See supra note 1.

- 1. D.C. Official Code § 22-2701.01: Refers to §§ 22-2713 through 22-2720.
- 2. D.C. Official Code § 22-1831: Refers to §§ 22-2713 through 22-2720.
- 3. D.C. Official Code § 22-1839: Refers to § 22-3022(b).
- 4. D.C. Official Code § 22-3226.06: Refers to § 22-3226.09.
- 5. D.C. Official Code § 22-4134: Contains terms that are defined in § 22-4131.
- 6. D.C. Code § 22-4329: Refers generally to the provisions and authority of this "chapter," which is otherwise being relocated.
- 7. D.C. Code § 22-4331: Refers generally to the requirements in the "chapter," which is otherwise being relocated.
- 8. D.C. Official Code § 22-4015: Refers generally to the requirements in the "chapter," which is otherwise being relocated.

The Criminal Code Reform Commissions recommends that the Office of the General Counsel check for other conforming amendments that may be necessary in Title 22.

B. Differences from 2015 Draft Legislation

Unlike the Sentencing Commission's recommendations and draft bill that were submitted to the Council in September 2015, title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, deletes the provisions relocated from Title 22 and marks these provisions as "Transferred." The practice of marking statutory sections in Title 22 that previously held content as "Transferred," "Repealed," or "Reserved" is continued in title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX.

Three additional statutes, § 22-4251, "Comprehensive Homicide Elimination Strategy Task Force established," § 22-1842, "Training Program" (that MPD and other agencies are required to provide on human trafficking), and § 22-1843 "Public Posting of Human Trafficking Hotline" are recommended for removal from Title 22. In addition, § 22-4331, which codifies a penalty for violations of Game and Fish laws in Chapter 43 of Title 22, and § 22-4329, which codifies an offense, are no longer recommended for removal in this Report. Section 22-4331 is a penalty provision and an Advisory Group comment suggested not removing § 22-4329 at this time. The remainder of Chapter 43 is still recommended for removal.

VI. ENACTMENT OF TITLE 22

To "[e]nable the adoption of Title 22 as an enacted title of the District of Columbia Official Code,"⁴⁵ the Criminal Code Reform Commission has prepared title I of the proposed legislation in Appendix IX, the "Enactment of Title 22 and Criminal ⁴⁵ See supra note 1.

Code Amendments Act of 2017." The text of title I of the bill in Appendix IX reflects the changes to Title 22 statutes discussed in this Report and the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code as of April 5, 2016, when the online LexisNexis D.C. Official Code was last updated at the time this Report and accompanying appendices were prepared.⁴⁶ For information on the review process used to determine the text of Title 22 of the D.C. Official Code, see pages 17-19 of the of the "Report on Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

"Enactment" of Title 22 refers to legislative adoption of the text of Title 22 as a single authoritative law. Currently, Title 22 is not enacted, which means that the Council's "D.C. Official Code" text for Title 22 has never been legislatively adopted and is not a legally binding statement of the law. The current "D.C. Official Code" text for Title 22 is merely "prima facie"⁴⁷ evidence of the numerous criminal laws that have been adopted by the legislature since the founding of the District. Codification lawyers⁴⁸ over time have compiled the District's legislatively approved laws into the current unenacted Title 22 that is in D.C. Official Code.

The compilation of criminal laws into Title 22 is essential for the public and practitioners to efficiently locate District criminal laws. But, so long as Title 22 remains unenacted, even the D.C. Official Code text remains a cutting and pasting of past legislatively approved laws (and, as described below, errors may occur in that process). Moreover, every time the Council changes a criminal statute that appears in the unenacted Title 22, it must laboriously locate and amend the original legislatively approved criminal statute, which may be decades or a century old, as well as any subsequent amendments. However, if the Council enacts Title 22 as provided in title 1 of Appendix IX, and approves it as a whole law, future legislative changes to Title 22 will be less laborious. Future amendments would only require that Title 22 itself be amended, rather than the original law and all the subsequent amendments created thereafter.

A. Findings

The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends the resolution of over a dozen discrepancies between the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code and the ⁴⁶ The Report and accompanying appendices were prepared in October 2016. Before the Council can vote on title 1 of Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, the Council's Codification Counsel will need to update the bill to reflect any criminal laws or amendments that have become effective since April 5, 2016, to the date of the Council vote to enact Title 22.

⁴⁷ See Burt v. District of Columbia, 525 A.2d 616, 619 & n.3 (D.C. 1987) ("The District of Columbia Code establishes prima facie the laws of the District of Columbia.") (citing 1 U.S.C. § 204(b)). Under its general legislative authority, D.C. Official Code § 1-203.02, the Council has previously enacted multiple Titles of the D.C. Code, such as Title 29 (Business Organizations) and Title 47 (Taxation and Fiscal Affairs).

original legislation (and amendments) that are the source of Title 22. All identified discrepancies are discussed in Appendix VI.

Most of these discrepancies between the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code and the original legislation (and amendments) are minor, and their resolution is obvious. For example, D.C. Code § 22-4514, Possession of certain dangerous weapons prohibited, states that members of the "Air Force" are exempt from a provision of the statute. However, the underlying organic legislation does not mention "Air Force." Rather, "Air Force" appears to have been added by codification counsel after the Air Force became a branch of the armed services. The inclusion of "Air Force" in D.C. Code § 22-4514 appears to be consistent with Congressional intent for the statute, but lacks an identifiable foundation in law. The Criminal Code Reform Commission's recommendation is to resolve this discrepancy by explicitly adding "Air Force" into the enacted text of Title 22, providing a legal basis for that term.

B. Differences from 2015 Draft Legislation

Unlike the Sentencing Commission's recommendations and draft bill that were submitted to the Council in September 2015, title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, resolves the discrepancies between the current text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code and the underlying organic legislation. When the legislation in Appendix IX becomes law, the resolution of these discrepancies in Title 22 will become the law because they will be the text of an enacted Title 22. The underlying organic legislation will be repealed.

In addition to resolving the discrepancies between the organic legislation and the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code, title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX makes many other amendments discussed elsewhere in this Report directly to the text of Title 22:

- 1. Repealing archaic and unused offenses and provisions (Part I of this Report);
- 2. Technical amendments to correct outdated or unnecessarily gendered language and improper delegations of prosecutorial authority (Part II of this Report); and
- 3. Amending unconstitutional statutes (Part III of this Report).

If the proposed legislation in Appendix IX is approved and becomes law, these amendments will become part of the enacted Title 22.

Enactment of Title 22 as provided in title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX will make no change to existing criminal statutes to Title 22 other than the specific amendments and the resolved discrepancies which are clearly stated in the "Statement of Legislative Intent." Established judicial canons of construction state that legislative intent is the primary principle of statutory interpretation⁴⁹ and the proposed enactment legislation, title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX, flatly states in the "Statement of Legislative Intent for the Enactment of Title 22":

The Council of the District of Columbia finds it necessary to enact Title 22. The Council does not intend enactment of Title 22 to substantively change the laws therein, except for the specific changes noted in this Statement of Legislative Intent for the Enactment of Title 22. Nor does the Council intend enactment of Title 22 to indicate legislative approval or disapproval of any court decisions construing the laws therein.

By adopting this language in Appendix IX the Council would explicitly reject any argument that the Council intended for enactment to substantively change Title 22 other than through the specified amendments in the Statement of Legislative Intent, or that prior court rulings construing the language of unenacted Title 22 statutes are being given tacit or explicit legislative approval through enactment.⁵⁰

The Commission's Advisory Group members had differing opinions as to whether, beyond the statement of intent in the preface of the draft bill, it also was necessary and proper to codify a short statement of legislative intent at the beginning of enacted Title 22. With the agreement of the Code Revision Advisory group, the Commission therefore qualifies its recommendations regarding enactment of Title 22 and the draft bill in Appendix IX with a request that the Council's Office of the General Counsel consider this matter.

⁴⁹ When interpreting the meaning of a statute, the DCCA "first look[s] at the language of the statute by itself to see if the language is plain and admits of no more than one meaning." Peoples Drugs Stores, Inc. v. District of Columbia, 470 A.2d 751, 753 (D.C. 1983) (en banc). Although the plain meaning rule is "certainly the first step in statutory interpretation, it is not always the last or most illuminating step." Id.); see also In re Smith, 138 A.3d 1181, 1184-86 (D.C. 2016) (stating that the plain language of a statute must be the court's "starting point for statutory interpretation" and finding that the language of the statute at issue was plain, but also analyzing the structure and objectives of the statute). The DCCA has "found it appropriate to look beyond the plain language meaning of statutory language in several different situations," including to "effectuate the legislative purpose" . . . as determined by a reading of the legislative history or by an examination of the statute as a whole." Id. at 754 (quoting Mulky v. United States, 451 A.2d 855, 857 (D.C. 1982)); see, e.g., Floyd E. Davis Mortgage Corp. v. District of Columbia, 455 A.2d 910, 911 (D.C. 1983) (per curiam) ("[A] statute is to be construed in the context of the entire legislative scheme."); Dyer v. D.C. Department of Housing and Community Development, 452 A.2d 968, 969-70 (D.C. 1982) ("The use of legislative history as an aid in interpretation is proper when the literal words of the statute would bring about a result completely at variance with the purpose of the Act."); District of Columbia v. Orleans, 406 F.2d 957, 959 (D.C. Cir. 1968) ("[T]he 'plain meaning' doctrine has always been subservient to a truly discernible legislative purpose however discerned, by equitable construction or recourse to legislative history.").

⁵⁰ Without a clear statement of legislative intent that enactment is not intended to indicate approval of past court interpretations of the unenacted statutes, it is possible that courts would infer such legislative approval. The DCCA has recognized that "reenactment of a statute without change in its language indicates approval of interpretations rendered prior to the reenactment," and that, "if the court interprets a statute and the legislature fails to take action to change that interpretation, it is presumed that the legislature has acquiesced in the court's interpretation." Marshall v. D.C. Rental Hous. Comm'n, 533 A.2d 1271, 1275-76 (D.C. 1987) (quoting 2A SUTHERLAND ON STATUTORY CONSTRUCTION, § 45.12, at 55 (Sands 4th ed. 1985)). However, neither the Marshall court nor any other controlling District case law has involved an enactment bill affirmatively stating that it may not be construed as making a substantive change in law or that the legislature does not intend for enactment to indicate legislative approval or disapproval of court decisions.

VII. CONCLUSION

The recommendations in this Report are essential to any modernization of the District's criminal statutes. Clearly archaic and outdated criminal statutes like "Playing games in streets" should be repealed. Outdated references to the District's "Workhouse" and unnecessarily gendered language should be corrected. Sections of criminal statutes that courts have held to be unconstitutional and are no longer used in practice should be struck from the D.C. Code. The possibility of being convicted of judicially-created common law offenses, which have not been created by the legislature nor been used in decades, should be eliminated. Extraneous procedural and non-criminal provisions in Title 22 of the D.C. Code should be relocated to other titles, limiting Title 22 to a compilation of District criminal offenses and penalties. Lastly, the entire text of Title 22 of the D.C. Official Code should be enacted as a single law to ease the administrative burden of making future amendments.

While essential, the recommendations in this Report are only a small portion of the work that is necessary to create a modern criminal code for the District. Even among the topics addressed in this Report, work remains to be done. For example, hundreds of crimes—nearly all misdemeanors linked to regulatory violations of some sort—scattered outside Title 22 of the D.C. Code merit further review as to whether they should be repealed as archaic and unused. More urgently, the commonly used felonies and misdemeanors in Title 22 need to be revised to describe all their elements, reduce unnecessary overlap and gaps in liability, use consistent definitions and clear language, and have proportionate penalties. This is the work that the Criminal Code Reform Commission has turned to. Given the relatively uncontroversial nature of its recommendations and the immediate improvements they will bring to the clarity and functionality of the District's criminal statutes, the Criminal Code Reform Commission submits this Report and accompanying Appendices for Council and Mayoral consideration as it develops further reform recommendations.

Part 1: Archaic and Unused Statutes in Title 22.

D.C. Code § 22-1003. Rest, water and feeding for animals transported by railroad company.

No railroad company, in the carrying or transportation of animals, shall permit the same to be confined in cars for a longer period than 24 hours, without unloading the same, for rest, water, and feeding, for a period of at least 5 consecutive hours, unless prevented from so unloading by storm or other accidental causes. In estimating such confinement the time during which such animals have been confined without such rest on connecting roads from which they are received shall be included; it being the intent of this section to prohibit their continuous confinement beyond the period of 24 hours, except upon contingencies hereinbefore stated. Animals so unloaded shall be properly fed, watered, and sheltered during such rest by the owner or person having the custody thereof, or in case of his default in so doing, then by the railroad company transporting the same, at the expense of said owner or persons in custody thereof. And said company shall, in such case, have a lien upon such animals for food, care, and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for any detention of such animals authorized by this section. Any company, owner, or custodian of such animals who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall, for each and every such offense, be liable for and forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than $1 nor more than $500; provided, however, that when animals shall be carried in cars in which they can and do have proper food, water, space, and opportunity for rest, the foregoing provisions in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply.

D.C. Code § 22-1012(a). Abandonment of maimed or diseased animal; destruction of diseased animals; disposition of animal or vehicle on arrest of driver; scientific experiments.

(a) A person being the owner or possessor or having charge or custody of a maimed, diseased, disabled, or infirm animal who abandons such animal, or leaves it to lie in the street or road, or public place, more than 3 hours after he or she receives notice that it is left disabled, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $10 and not more than the amount set forth in § 22-3571.01, or by imprisonment in jail not more than 180 days, or both. Any agent or officer of the Washington Humane Society may lawfully destroy, or cause to be destroyed, any animal found abandoned and not properly cared for, appearing, in the judgment of 2 reputable citizens called by such officer to view the same in such officer's presence, to be glandered, injured, or diseased past recovery for any useful purpose. APPENDIX III: UNCONSTITUTIONAL STATUTES LIST & TEXT

Note: All statute texts are taken from the online LexisNexis District of Columbia Official Code. The texts in the Official Code are current through April 5, 2016.

The Criminal Code Reform Commission has identified two current D.C. Code offenses as unconstitutional, and both are recommended for amendment: D.C. Code § 7-2506.01, Unlawful Possession of Ammunition (UA), and D.C. Code § 22-4512, Alteration of Identifying Marks of Weapons (AIM).¹ The charts on the following pages contain side-by-side comparisons of the current and revised statutes. Unlike the legislation in titles 1 and 3 of the bill in Appendix IX, which contain only the new language, the charts show the additions and deletions to the statutes.

¹ The Sentencing Commission previously gave the Council notice of the unconstitutionality of D.C. APPENDIX IV: COMMON LAW OFFENSES LIST & TEXT

Note: All statute texts are taken from the online LexisNexis District of Columbia Official Code. The texts in the Official Code are current through April 5, 2016.

Part 1: Common Law Offenses that Will be Repealed with the Amendment of the Reception Statute, D.C. Code § 45-401.

Being a Common Scold

"The defendant has been convicted upon the second count of this indictment, which is in the following words: 'And the jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that the said Ann Royall, being an evil disposed person as aforesaid, and a common scold and disturber of the peace of her honest and quiet neighbors, on the first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, as aforesaid, at the county of Washington aforesaid, and on divers other days and times, as well before as after, was and yet is a common scold, and disturber of the peace and happiness of her quiet and honest neighbors residing in the county aforesaid[.]"

United States v. Royall, 27 F. Cas. 906, 908 (C.C.D.D.C. 1829)

Disturbing Public Worship

"The principles upon which the disturbance of public worship becomes an offence at common law are these: Every man has a perfect right to worship God in the manner most conformable to the dictates of his conscience, and to assemble and unite with others in the same act of worship, so that he does not interfere with the equal rights of others. The common law protects this right, either by giving the party his private action for damages on account of the injury he has sustained; or if the violation of the right be directly, or consequentially injurious to society, by a public prosecution."

United States v. Brooks, 24 F. Cas. 1244, 1245 (C.C.D.D.C. 1834).

Negligent Escape

"A negligent escape is when the party arrested or imprisoned doth escape against the will of him that arrested or imprisoned him, and is not freshly pursued and taken again, before he hath lost the sight of him."

United States v. Davis, 167 F.2d 228, 229 (D.C. Cir. 1948).

APPENDIX V: RELOCATION OF TITLE 22 PROVISIONS LIST & TEXT

Note: All statute texts are taken from the online LexisNexis District of Columbia Official Code. The texts in the Official Code are current through April 5, 2016.

The chart on the following pages lists all the statutes in Title 22 that are being relocated from Title 22, and for several of the statutes, a recommended title for the relocation. It is the responsibility of the Council's Office of the General Counsel to determine where to place all relocated statutes.

However, the Criminal Code Reform Commission notes that conforming amendments will be necessary in many titles of the D.C. Official Code to adjust to the relocation of these statutes from Title 22. First, any statutes that are relocated to an enacted title may require new legislation to so relocate them. Second, some relocated statutes may be dependent on definitions or other sections that will remain in Title 22. In order to ensure definitions continue to apply to these relocated statutes, conforming amendments to the relocated statutes will be necessary.

Additionally, as was noted in the Report accompanying these appendices, before the proposed enactment legislation in title 1 of the bill in Appendix IX can be passed, the following statutes in Title 22 will need to be amended:

- 1. D.C. Code § 22-2701.01: Refers to §§ 22-2713 through 22-2720.
- 2. D.C. Code § 22-1831: Refers to §§ 22-2713 through 22-2720.
- 3. D.C. Code § 22-1839: Refers to § 22-3022(b).
- 4. D.C. Code § 22-3226.06: Refers to § 22-3226.09.
- 5. D.C. Code § 22-4134: Contains terms that are defined in § 22-4131.
- 6. D.C. Code § 22-4015: Refers generally to the requirements in the "chapter," which is otherwise being relocated.
- 7. D.C. Code § 22-4329: Refers generally to the provisions and authority of this "chapter," which is otherwise being relocated.
- 8. D.C. Code § 22-4331: Refers generally to the requirements in the "chapter," which is otherwise being relocated.

The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Office of the General Counsel check for other conforming amendments that may be necessary in Title 22. The chart of the relocated statutes from Title 22 begins on the next page.

	crime-dependent civil actions into one place in the D.C. Code.
	However, to provide notice of the civil provisions, it is

	The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends replacing "at his instance" with "at the defendant's instance" to avoid unnecessarily gendered language.

	For §§ 22-4328, 22-4332, and 22-4333, the Criminal Code Reform Commission notes that the references to "Mayor" and "Council of the District of Columbia" are not contained in the organic legislation, which instead refers to the "Commissioners." However, as is discussed in Part 2.B.i of Appendix VI of this Report, the references to "Mayor" and "Council of the District of Columbia" in these statutes correctly replace references to the "Commissioners."
	In D.C. Code § 22-4330, the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that "District of Columbia Council" in subsection (a) be replaced with the "Council of the District of Columbia." Otherwise, the reference to "Mayor" in this statute correctly replaces the reference to the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation (discussed in Part 2.B.i of Appendix VI).

(b) Any statute of limitation imposed for the filing of a civil suit under this section shall not begin to run until the plaintiff knew, or reasonably should have known, of any act constituting a violation of § 22-1832, § 22-1833, § 22-1834, § 22-1835 or § 22-1836, or until a minor plaintiff has reached the age of majority, whichever is later.

(c) If a person entitled to sue is imprisoned, insane, or similarly incapacitated at the time the cause of action accrues, so that it is impossible or impracticable for him or her to bring an action, then the time of the incapacity is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Whenever a nuisance is kept, maintained, or exists, as defined in § 22-2713, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, the Attorney General of the United States, the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia, or any citizen of the District of Columbia, may maintain an action in equity in the name of the United States of America or in the name of the District of Columbia, upon the relation of such United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, the Attorney General of the United States, the Corporation Counsel of the District of Columbia, or citizen, to perpetually enjoin said nuisance, the person or persons conducting or maintaining the same, and the owner or agent of the building or ground upon which said nuisance exists. In such action the court, or a judge in vacation, shall, upon the presentation of a petition therefor alleging that the nuisance complained of exists, allow a temporary writ of injunction, without bond, if it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court or judge by evidence in the form of affidavits, depositions, oral testimony, or otherwise, as the complainant may elect, unless the court or judge by previous order shall have directed the form and manner in which it shall be presented. Three days notice, in writing, shall be given the defendant of the hearing of the application, and if then continued at his instance the writ as prayed shall be granted as a matter of course. When an injunction has been granted it shall be binding on the defendant throughout the District of Columbia and any violation of the provisions of injunction herein provided shall be a contempt as hereinafter provided.

D.C. Code § 22-2715. Abatement of nuisance under § 22-2713 by injunction - Trial; dismissal of complaint; prosecution; costs.

The action when brought shall be triable at the first term of court, after due and timely service of the notice has been given, and in such action evidence of the general reputation of the place shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the existence of said nuisance. If the complaint is filed by a citizen, it shall not be dismissed, except upon a sworn statement made by the complainant and the complainant's attorney, setting forth the reasons why the action should be dismissed, and the dismissal approved by the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia or the Attorney General of the United States of America in writing or in open court. If the court is of the opinion that the action ought not to be dismissed, it may direct the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia to prosecute said action to judgment; and if the action is continued more than 1 term of court, any citizen of the District of Columbia, or the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, may be substituted for the complaining party and prosecute said action to judgment. If the action is brought by a citizen, and the court finds there was no reasonable ground or cause for said action, the costs may be taxed to such citizen.

D.C. Code § 22-2716. Violation of injunction granted under § 22-2714.

In case of the violation of any injunction granted under the provisions of § 22-2714, the court, or, in vacation, a judge thereof, may summarily try and punish the offender. The proceedings shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court an information, under oath, setting out the alleged facts constituting such violation, upon which the court or judge shall cause a warrant to issue, under which the defendant shall be arrested. The trial may be had upon affidavits, or either party may at any stage of the proceedings demand the production and oral examination of the witnesses. A party found guilty of contempt, under the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 and not more than the amount set forth in § 22-3571.01 or by imprisonment in the District Jail not less than three nor more than 6 months or by both fine and imprisonment.

D.C. Code § 22-2717. Order of abatement; sale of property; entry of closed premises punishable as contempt.

If the existence of the nuisance be established in an action as provided in §§ 22-2713 to 22-2720, or in a criminal proceeding, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the judgment in the case which order shall direct the removal from the building or place of all fixtures, furniture, musical instruments, or movable property used in conducting the nuisance, and shall direct the sale thereof in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution, and the effectual closing of the building or place against its use for any purpose, and so keeping it closed for a period of 1 year, unless sooner released. If any person shall break and enter or use a building, erection, or place so directed to be closed such person shall be punished as for contempt, as provided in § 22-2716.

D.C. Code § 22-2718. Disposition of proceeds of sale.

The proceeds of the sale of the personal property as provided in § 22-2717, shall be applied in the payment of the costs of the action and abatement and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the defendant.

D.C. Code § 22-2719. Bond for abatement; order for delivery of premises; effect of release.

If the owner appears and pays all costs of the proceeding and files a bond, with sureties to be approved by the clerk, in the full value of the property, to be ascertained by the court or, in vacation, by the Collector of Taxes of the District of Columbia, conditioned that such owner will immediately abate said nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept within a period of 1 year thereafter, the court, or, in vacation, the judge, may, if satisfied of such owner's good faith, order the premises closed under the order of abatement to be delivered to said owner and said order of abatement canceled so far as the same may relate to said property; and if the proceeding be an action in equity and said bond be given and costs therein paid before judgment and order of abatement, the action shall be thereby abated as to said building only. The release of the property under the provisions of this section shall not release it from judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subject by law.

D.C. Code § 22-2720. Tax for maintaining such nuisance.

Whenever a permanent injunction issues against any person for maintaining a nuisance as herein defined, or against any owner or agent of the building kept or used for the purpose prohibited by §§ 22-2713 to 22-2720, there shall be assessed against said building and the ground upon which the same is located and against the person or persons maintaining said nuisance, and the owner or agent of said premises, a tax of $300. The assessment of said tax shall be made by the Director of the Department of Finance and Revenue of the District of Columbia and shall be made within 3 months from the date of the granting of the permanent injunction. In case the Director fails or neglects to make said assessment the same shall be made by the Chief of Police, and a return of said assessment shall be made to the Collector of Taxes. Said tax shall be a perpetual lien upon all property, both personal and real used for the purpose of maintaining said nuisance, and the payment of said tax shall not relieve the person or building from any other penalties provided by law. The provisions of the law relating to the collection and distribution of the tax herein prescribed in so far as the same are applicable and not in conflict with the provisions of said sections.

(1) The Agency may give a sex offender credit for the time the sex offender was registered in another jurisdiction;

(2) The Agency may deny a sex offender credit for any time in which the sex offender is detained, incarcerated, confined, civilly committed, or hospitalized and for any time in which a sex offender was registered prior to a revocation of probation, parole, supervised release, conditional release, or convalescent leave; and

(3) The registration period is tolled for any time the sex offender fails to register or otherwise fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter.

(b) The registration period shall start when a disposition described in § 22-4001(3)(A) occurs and continue throughout the lifetime of a sex offender who:

D.C. Code § 22-4003. Certification duties of the Superior Court.

(a) Upon a finding that a defendant committed a registration offense, the Court shall enter an order certifying that the defendant is a sex offender and that the defendant will be subject to registration for the period set forth in § 22-4002(a) or (b). The Court shall advise the sex offender of that person's duties under this chapter, shall order the sex offender to report to the Agency to register as required by the Agency and to comply with the requirements of this chapter, and shall require the sex offender to read and sign the order.

(b) The Court shall provide to the Agency a copy of the certification and order and such other records and information as will assist in the registration of the sex offender.

(c) In any case where the Court orders the release of a sex offender into the community following a period of detention, incarceration, confinement, civil commitment, or hospitalization, the Court shall:

(1) If the sex offender has been certified as a sex offender under subsection (a) of this section, provide the sex offender with a copy of the order required under subsection (a) of this section and require the sex offender to read and sign the copy of the order; or

(2) If the sex offender has not been certified as a sex offender under subsection (a) of this section, follow the procedures set forth under subsection (a) of this section.

(d) The applicability of the requirements of this chapter to a person otherwise subject to this chapter does not depend on the Court's making a certification under subsection (a) of this section. The Court is required to enter an order certifying that a person is a sex offender only when --

(1) A defendant is found in a proceeding before the Court to have committed a registration offense;

(2) The Court, on or after July 11, 2000, orders the release of a sex offender into the community following a period of detention, incarceration, confinement, civil commitment, or hospitalization;

(3) The government makes a motion for such a certification and the Court grants the motion; or

(4) A motion is filed as authorized under § 22-4004 and the Court denies the motion.

D.C. Code § 22-4004. Dispute resolution procedures in the Superior Court.

(a) (1) A person, other than a person for whom a certification has been made under § 22-4003(a), may seek review of a determination by the Agency that the person is required to register or to register for life under this chapter if:

(A) The determination depends on a finding or findings which are not apparent from the disposition described in 22-4001(3)(A), including, but not limited to, a finding not apparent from the disposition as to:

(i) Whether the victim of an offense was a minor or under 12 year of age;

(ii) Whether certain sexual acts or contacts were forcible;

(iii) Whether the exemption of § 22-4016(b) applies; or

(iv) Whether the standards under § 22-4001(6)(E) or (8)(G) for coverage offenses under the laws of other jurisdictions are satisfied; or

(B) The person asserts that the records establishing that he or she was convicted or found not guilty by reason of insanity of a registration offense or offenses or a lifetime registration offense or offenses, or that he or she was determined to be a sexual psychopath as provided in § 22-4001(3)(A)(ii), are erroneous.

(2) In order to seek review of a determination, as authorized by paragraph (1) of this subsection, the person shall:

(A) At the time the person is first informed by the Agency that it has determined that the person must register as a sex offender or must register as a sex offender for life, provide the Agency with a notice of intent to seek review of the determination; and

(B) Within 30 days of providing the notice of intent described in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, file a motion in the Court setting forth the facts which he or she disputes and attaching any documents or affidavits upon which he or she intends to rely. The Court shall decide the motion within 60 days of its filing.

(3) If a person fails to follow the procedures set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection, he or she may nevertheless seek review of a determination, as authorized by paragraph (1) of this subsection, but only for good cause shown and to prevent manifest injustice, by filing a motion within 3 years of the date on which a determination is made by the Agency that the person must register as a sex offender or must register as a sex offender for life. The release and dissemination of information concerning the person, including community notification, as authorized by this chapter for sex offenders will, however, proceed unless and until the Court issues an order that the person is not required to register as a sex offender.

(b) Unless the motion described in subsection (a) of this section and attached documents and affidavits conclusively show that the person is entitled to no relief, the Court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the prosecuting attorney.

(c) (1) The Court may, in its sole discretion, decide a motion made under subsection (a) of this section on the basis of the motion, affidavits, the files and records of the case, other written documents, proffers of the parties, or an evidentiary hearing. If the Court determines that a hearing is necessary to decide the issue or if the interests of justice otherwise require, the Court shall appoint counsel for the person if he or she is not represented by counsel and meets the financial criteria for the appointment of counsel.

(2) If the Court concludes that the person is required to register under this chapter, the Court shall follow the procedures set forth in § 22-4003(a) and (b). If the Court concludes that the person is not required to register under this chapter or is not required to register for life under this chapter, the Court shall enter an order certifying that the person is not required to register under this chapter or is not required to register for life under this chapter and shall provide the Agency with a copy of that order.

(3) Any misdemeanor offense committed against an adult, except where the offender agrees in a plea agreement to be subject to sex offender registration requirements.

D.C. Code § 22-4017. Freedom of Information Act exception.

Except for records made public according to the regulations promulgated by the Mayor pursuant to § 22-4011(g), no sex offender registration information shall be available as a public record under § 2-532.

D.C. Code § 22-4131. Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter, the term:

(1) "Actual innocence" or "actually innocent" means that the person did not commit the crime of which he or she was convicted.

(2) "Biological material" means the contents of a sexual assault examination kit, bodily fluids (including, but not limited to, blood, semen, saliva, and vaginal fluid), hair, skin tissue, fingernail scrapings, bone, or other human DNA source matter which apparently derived from the perpetrator of a crime or, under circumstances that may be probative of the perpetrator's identity, apparently derived from the victim of a crime. This definition applies equally to material that is present on other evidence, including, but not limited to, clothing, ligatures, bedding or other household material, drinking cups, or cigarettes, and to material that is recovered from evidence and thereafter maintained separately from that evidence, including, but not limited to, on a slide, on a swab, in cuttings, or in scrapings.

(3) "Crime of violence" means the crimes cited in § 23-1331(4).

(4) "DNA" means deoxyribonucleic acid.

(5) "DNA testing" means forensic DNA analysis of biological material.

(6) "Law enforcement agencies" means the Metropolitan Police Department, the Corporation Counsel for the District of Columbia, prosecutors, or any other governmental agency that has the authority to investigate, make arrests for, or prosecute or adjudicate District of Columbia criminal or delinquency offenses. The term "law enforcement agencies" shall include law enforcement agencies that have entered into cooperative agreements with the Metropolitan Police Department pursuant to § 5-133.17, to the extent the law enforcement agency is acting pursuant to such a cooperative agreement.

(7) "New evidence" means evidence that:

(A) Was not personally known and could not, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, have been personally known to the movant at the time of the trial or the plea proceeding;

(B) Was personally known to the movant at the time of the trial or the plea proceeding, but could not be produced at that time because:

(i) The presence or the testimony of a witness could not be compelled or, in the exercise of reasonable diligence by the movant, otherwise obtained; or

(ii) Physical evidence, in the exercise of the movant's reasonable diligence, could not be obtained; or

(C) Was obtained as a result of post-conviction DNA testing.

D.C. Code § 22-4132. Pre-conviction DNA testing.

(a) Prior to trial for or the entry of a plea to a crime of violence, the defendant shall be informed in open court of physical evidence seized or recovered in the investigation or prosecution of the case which may contain biological material and of the results of any DNA testing that has been performed on such evidence.

(b) A defendant charged with a crime of violence shall be informed in open court:

(1) That he or she may request or waive independent DNA testing prior to trial or the entry of a plea if:

(A) (i) DNA testing has resulted in the inclusion of the defendant as a source of the biological material; or

(ii) Under circumstances that are probative of the perpetrator's identity, DNA testing has resulted in the inclusion of the victim as a source of the biological material; and

(B) There is sufficient biological material to conduct another DNA test;

(2) That he or she may request or waive DNA testing of biological material prior to trial or the entry of a plea if the biological material has not been subjected to DNA testing; and

(3) Of the potential evidentiary value of DNA evidence in the defendant's case and the consequences of requesting or waiving DNA testing.

(c) A defendant who makes a knowing, intelligent, and voluntary waiver of DNA testing or independent DNA testing pursuant to subsection (b) of this section prior to trial or the entry of a plea is not eligible for post-conviction DNA testing under § 22-4133 unless the defendant is entitled to have the conviction to which the DNA evidence relates set aside under § 23-110 or Rule 32 of the Superior Court Rules of Criminal Procedure.

D.C. Code § 22-4133. Post-conviction DNA testing.

(a) A person in custody pursuant to the judgment of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia for a crime of violence may, at any time after conviction or adjudication as a delinquent, apply to the court for DNA testing of biological material that:

(1) Was seized or recovered as evidence in the investigation or prosecution that resulted in the conviction or adjudication as a delinquent or can otherwise be identified as evidence in the case;

(2) Is in the actual or constructive possession of the District of Columbia or the United States, or has been retained by any other person or entity under conditions sufficient to establish that it has not been substituted, tampered with, replaced, or altered in any material respect; and

(3) (A) Was not previously subject to DNA testing because DNA testing was not readily available in criminal cases in the District of Columbia at the time of conviction or adjudication as a delinquent;

(B) Was not previously subjected to the type of DNA testing being requested and the new type of DNA testing would have a reasonable probability of providing a more probative result than tests previously conducted;

(C) Was not previously subjected to DNA testing because of circumstances that would entitle the applicant to relief under § 23-110 or Rule 32 of the Superior Court Rules of Criminal Procedure; or

(D) Was not previously subjected to DNA testing because it is new evidence as defined in 22-4131(7)(A) or (B).

(b) The application shall:

(1) Include an affidavit by the applicant, under penalty of perjury, stating that the applicant is actually innocent of the crime that is the subject of the application; provided, that the denial of an application for testing or an inconclusive result produced by DNA testing shall not be admissible in any prosecution based on the filing of a false affidavit;

(2) Identify the specific evidence for which DNA testing is requested;

(3) Set forth the reason that the requested DNA testing was not previously obtained; and

(4) Explain how the DNA evidence would help establish that the applicant is actually innocent despite having been convicted at trial or having pled guilty.

(c) Unless the application and files and records of the case conclusively show that the applicant is entitled to no relief, the court shall notify the prosecution of an application made pursuant to subsection (a) of this section and shall afford the prosecution an opportunity to respond. Upon receiving notice of an application made pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the prosecution shall take the necessary steps to ensure that any remaining biological material that was obtained in connection with the case or investigation is preserved pending the completion of proceedings under this section.

(d) The court shall order DNA testing pursuant to an application made under subsection (a) of this section upon a determination that the application meets the criteria set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this section and there is a reasonable probability that testing will produce non-cumulative evidence that would help establish that the applicant was actually innocent of the crime for which the applicant was convicted or adjudicated as delinquent.

(e) (1) The cost of DNA testing ordered pursuant to subsection (d) of this section shall be paid by the District of Columbia, to the same extent provided for in § 11-2605, if the court finds that the applicant is financially unable to pay for the testing. If the applicant is financially able to pay for the testing, the cost shall be borne by the applicant.

(2) The court may appoint counsel for an applicant for DNA testing pursuant to this section who is financially unable to obtain adequate representation.

(3) The provisions of Chapter 26 of Title 11 shall apply with equal force to applications made pursuant to this section.

(f) An order granting or denying relief under this section is a final order for purposes of appeal.

D.C. Code § 22-4135. Motion to vacate a conviction or grant a new trial on the ground of actual innocence.

(a) A person convicted of a criminal offense in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia may move the court to vacate the conviction or to grant a new trial on grounds of actual innocence based on new evidence.

(b) Notwithstanding the time limits in any other provision of law, a motion for relief under this section may be made at any time.

(c) The motion shall set forth specific, non-conclusory facts:

(1) Identifying the specific new evidence;

(2) Establishing how that evidence demonstrates that the movant is actually innocent despite having been convicted at trial or having pled guilty; and

(3) Establishing why the new evidence is not cumulative or impeaching.

(d) (1) The motion shall include an affidavit by the movant, under penalty of perjury, stating that movant is actually innocent of the crime that is the subject of the motion, and that the new evidence was not deliberately withheld by the movant for purposes of strategic advantage.

(2) The denial of a motion for relief under this section shall not be admissible in any prosecution based on the filing of a false affidavit.

(e) (1) Unless the motion and files and records of the case conclusively show that the movant is entitled to no relief, the court shall cause notice thereof to be served upon the prosecuting authority, grant a prompt hearing thereon, determine the issues, and make findings of fact and conclusions of law with respect thereto.

(2) The court may appoint counsel for an indigent movant under this section pursuant to Chapter 26 of Title 11.

(3) The court may entertain and determine the motion without requiring production of the movant at the hearing.

(4) A movant shall be entitled to invoke the processes of discovery available under Superior Court Rules of Criminal Procedure or Civil Procedure, or elsewhere in the usages and principles of law if, and to the extent that, the judge, in the exercise of the judge's discretion and for good cause shown, grants leave to do so, but not otherwise.

(f) A motion for relief made pursuant to this section may be dismissed if the government demonstrates that it has been materially prejudiced in its ability to respond to the motion by the delay in its filing, unless the movant shows that the motion is based on grounds which the movant could not have raised by the exercise of reasonable diligence before the circumstances prejudicial to the government occurred.

(g) (1) In determining whether to grant relief, the court may consider any relevant evidence, but shall consider the following:

(A) The new evidence;

(B) How the new evidence demonstrates actual innocence;

(C) Why the new evidence is or is not cumulative or impeaching;

(D) If the conviction resulted from a trial, and if the movant asserted a theory of defense inconsistent with the current claim of innocence, the specific reason the movant asserted an inconsistent theory at trial; and

(E) If the conviction resulted from a guilty plea, the specific reason the movant pleaded guilty despite being actually innocent of the crime.

(2) If, after considering the factors in paragraph (1) of this subsection, the court concludes that it is more likely than not that the movant is actually innocent of the crime, the court shall grant a new trial.

(3) If, after considering the factors in paragraph (1) of this subsection, the court concludes by clear and convincing evidence that the movant is actually innocent of the crime, the court shall vacate the conviction and dismiss the relevant count with prejudice.

(4) If the conviction resulted from a plea of guilty, and other charges were dismissed as part of a plea agreement, the court shall reinstate any charges of which the defendant has not demonstrated that the defendant is actually innocent.

(h) The court shall not be required to entertain a second or successive motion for similar relief on behalf of the same movant.

(i) An order entered on the motion is a final order for purposes of appeal.

D.C. Code § 22-4151. Qualifying offenses.

(a) The following criminal offenses shall be qualifying offenses for the purposes of DNA collection under the DNA Analysis Backlog Elimination Act of 2000, approved December 19, 2000 (Pub. L. No. 106-546; 114 Stat. 2726) [42 U.S.C. §§ 14135-14135e]:

As used in this section the term "wild animals" includes, without limitation, mammals, birds, fish, and reptiles not ordinarily domesticated.

APPENDIX VI: RESOLUTION OF DISCREPANCIES IN D.C. OFFICIAL CODE

Note: All statute texts are taken from the online LexisNexis District of Columbia Official Code. The texts in the Official Code are current through April 5, 2016.

This Appendix summarizes the resolution of the identified discrepancies between the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code as of April 5, 2016 and the underlying organic legislation. Part 1 of this Appendix discusses non-substantive discrepancies and Part 2 discusses substantive discrepancies that affect the substance of the law.

For information on the review process used to identify these discrepancies, see pages 16-19 of the "Report on Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Criminal Code Revisions" that was submitted to the Council in September 2015.

The Appendix summarizes the organic legislation and subsequent amendments. Copies of this legislation are available for review.

Part 1: Non-Substantive Discrepancies And Recommendations.

This part of the Appendix summarizes and recommends resolutions for the nonsubstantive discrepancies between the organic legislation and the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code as of April 5, 2016.

1. D.C. Code § 22-2701.01. Definitions for prostitution, pandering, and related statutes.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-2701.01 codifies the definitions that apply to prostitution, pandering, and related statutes in Chapter 27 of Title 22. The relevant language is in the lead-in language to the list of definitions and is italicized:

For the purposes of this section, §§ 22-2701, 22-2703, and 22-2723, § 22-2704, §§ 22-2705 to 22-2712, §§ 22-2713 to 22-2720, and § 22-2722 [list of definitions].

b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: Section 22-2701.01 states that the definitions codified in that section apply to § 22-2704, abducting or enticing a child from his or her home for purposes of prostitution. However, the organic legislation for § 22-2701.01, as modified by a subsequent amendment, incorrectly cites § 22-2704.

A 2007 amendment to § 22-2701.01 refers to "Section 812 of An Act To establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat 1322; D.C.

Official Code § 22-2704).^{"2} However, Section 812 of the 1901 Act contains the kidnapping offense, which is codified at § 22-2001, not § 22-2704. Section 813 of the 1901 Act is codified at § 22-2704.

c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-2701.01 continues to reference § 22-2704. It appears that the 2007 amendment to § 22-2701.01 erroneously refers to Section 812, and that what was intended was Section 813. None of the terms defined in § 22-2701.01 appear in the kidnapping statute. By codifying a reference to § 22-2704, the D.C. Official Code resolves an error in the 2007 amendment.

2. D.C. Code § 22-4505. Exceptions to certain weapons statutes.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4505 codifies the exceptions to certain weapons statutes. The relevant language is italicized:

(a) The provisions of §§ 22-4504(a) and 22-4504(a-1) shall not apply to: b. D i [...]

c
(2) Special police officers and campus police officers who carry a r firearm in accordance with D.C. Official Code § 5-129.02, and rules e promulgated pursuant to that section.

ancy with the organic legislation: Section 22-4505(a)(2) refers to "[s]pecial police officers and campus police officers who carry a firearm in accordance with D.C. Official Code § 5-129.02, and rules promulgated pursuant to that section." The language in the organic act (as modified by a 2012 amendment) refers to "rules promulgated to that act."

c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4505(a)(2) continues to refer to "that section." Section 5-129.02 has a specific subsection regarding rules for special police officers and campus police officers. By referring to "that section," the D.C. Official Code resolves confusion that may arise from reference to "that act" in the 2012 amendment.

3. D.C. Code § 22-3312.01. Defacing public or private property.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-3312.01 prohibits defacing public or private property. The relevant language is in the first clause and is italicized:

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons willfully and wantonly to disfigure, cut, chip, or cover, rub with, or otherwise place filth or excrement of any kind; to write, mark, or print obscene or indecent figures representing obscene or objects upon; to write, mark, draw, or paint, without the consent of the owner or proprietor thereof, or, in the case of public property, of the person having charge, custody, or control thereof, any word, sign, or figure upon:

(1) Any property, public or private, building, statue, monument, office, public passenger vehicle, mass transit equipment or facility, dwelling or structure of any kind including those in the course of erection; or

(2) The doors, windows, steps, railing, fencing, balconies, balustrades, stairs, porches, halls, walls, sides of any enclosure thereof, or any movable property.

b. D i screpancy with the organic legislation: In the organic legislation, the first clause concludes with "upon," so that the clause reads: "It shall be unlawful for any person or persons willfully and wantonly to disfigure, cut, chip, or cover, rub with, or otherwise place filth or excrement of any kind upon."

c. Recommendation: Correct the discrepancy so that the first clause of § 22-3312.01 concludes with "upon" as it does in the organic legislation. The other two clauses in the organic legislation conclude with "upon" because the statute requires the defacement "upon" property. The D.C. Official Code appears to inadvertently omit "upon" from the first clause. The revised statute would read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons willfully and wantonly to disfigure, cut, chip, or cover, rub with, or otherwise place filth or excrement of any kind upon; to write, mark, or print obscene or indecent figures representing obscene or objects upon; to write, mark, draw, or paint, without the consent of the owner or proprietor thereof, or, in the case of public property, of the person having charge, custody, or control thereof, any word, sign, or figure upon:

(1) Any property, public or private, building, statue, monument, office, public passenger vehicle, mass transit equipment or facility, dwelling or structure of any kind including those in the course of erection; or

(2) The doors, windows, steps, railing, fencing, balconies, balustrades, stairs, porches, halls, walls, sides of any enclosure thereof, or any movable property.

4. D.C. Code § 22-2104.01. Sentencing procedure for first degree murder.

a. Relevant language: Subsection(b) of § 22-2104.01 lists the aggravating factors that determine whether the sentence for first degree murder may be increased to more than 60 years up to, and including, life imprisonment without release. The relevant language is italicized in aggravating factor number 12:

(a) If a defendant is convicted of murder in the first degree, and if the prosecution has given the notice required under § 22-2104(a), a separate sentencing procedure shall be conducted as soon as practicable after the trial has been completed to determine whether to impose a sentence of more than 60 years up to, and including, life imprisonment without possibility of release.

(b) In determining the sentence, a finding shall be made whether, beyond a reasonable doubt, any of the following aggravating circumstances exist:

(12) At the time of the commission of the murder, the defendant had previously been convicted and sentenced, whether in a court of the District of Columbia, of the United States, or of any state, for (A) murder, (B) manslaughter, (C) any attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit murder, (D) assault with intent to kill, (E) assault with intent to murder, or (F) at least twice, for any offense or offenses, described in § 22-4501(f) [now § 22-4501(4)], whether committed in the District of Columbia or any other state, or the United States. A person shall be considered as having been convicted and sentenced twice for an offense or offense preceded the commission of the second offense and the initial sentencing for the second offense and the initial sentencing for the second offense preceded the commission of the instant murder.

b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: Subsection 12 of § 22-2104.01 codifies as an aggravating factor for first degree murder whether the defendant "had previously been convicted and sentenced . . . at least twice, for any offense or offenses, described in § 22-4501(f) [now § 22-4501(4)]." However, § 22-4501(4) codifies the definition of "machine gun," which does not make sense in the context of an aggravating factor that requires prior convictions.

When subsection (12) was added to § 22-2104.01 in 1995, subsection (f) of § 22-4501 codified the definition of "crime of violence." In 2009,³ however, the list of definitions in § 22-4501 was expanded, numbered, and reorganized. This legislation made "machine gun" subsection (4) and made "crime of violence" subsection (1). As a result, § 22-4501(4) no longer refers to the definition of "crime of violence."

c. Recommendation: Correct the text of § 22-2104.01 so that it refers to § 22-4501(1), which is the definition of "crime of violence." It appears that the text of § 22-2104.01 the official D.C. Code was not updated to reflect the reorganization of the definitions in § 22-4501. The revised statute would read as follows:

(a) If a defendant is convicted of murder in the first degree, and if the prosecution has given the notice required under § 22-2104(a), a separate sentencing procedure shall be conducted as soon as practicable after the trial has been completed to determine whether to impose a sentence of more than 60 years up to, and including, life imprisonment without possibility of release.

(b) In determining the sentence, a finding shall be made whether, beyond a reasonable doubt, any of the following aggravating circumstances exist:

(12) At the time of the commission of the murder, the defendant had previously been convicted and sentenced, whether in a court of the District of Columbia, of the United States, or of any state, for (A) murder, (B) manslaughter, (C) any attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit murder, (D) assault with intent to kill, (E) assault with intent to murder, or (F) at least twice, for any offense or offenses, described in § 22-4501(1), whether committed in the District of Columbia or any other state, or the United States. A person shall be considered as having been convicted and sentenced twice for an offense or offenses when the initial sentencing for the conviction in the first offense preceded the commission of the second offense and the initial sentencing for the second offense and the initial murder.

5. D.C. Code § 22-1801. "Writing" and "paper" defined.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-1801 codifies open-ended definitions for "writing" and "paper" for Title 22. The relevant language is italicized below:

Except where otherwise provided for where such a construction would be unreasonable, the words "writing" and "paper," wherever mentioned in this title, are to be taken to include instruments wholly in writing or wholly printed, or partly printed and partly in writing.

b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The 1901 organic legislation limits the applicability of the definitions to "this chapter," instead of "this title." The referenced chapter is chapter 19 of An Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901. The Act was the original criminal code for D.C., but the criminal code has been significantly expanded since 1901. As a result, many statutes in the current Title 22 that were not part of the original criminal code use the terms "writing" and "paper." Applying the definitions of these terms in § 22-1801 to these newer statutes may substantively affect these newer statutes.

c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-1801 continues to refer to "this title." The Criminal Code Reform Commission has reviewed all statutes in Title 22 that were not part of the original 1901 code that use the terms "writing"⁴ or "paper."⁵ Applying the open-ended definitions in § 22-1801 does not change the scope of or conflict with these statutes.

6. D.C. Code § 22-1802. "Anything of value" defined.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-1802 codifies an open-ended definition for "anything of value" for Title 22 and the District of Columbia Theft and White Collar Crimes Act of 1982 (1982 Theft Act). The relevant language is italicized below:

The words "anything of value," wherever they occur in this title and the District of Columbia Theft and White Collar Crimes Act of 1982, shall be held to include not only things possessing intrinsic value, but bank notes and other forms of paper money, and commercial paper and other writings which represent value.

⁴ For "writing" specifically, the majority of the statutes use "writing" as an adjective, such as providing a notice or statement "in writing." Section 22-1801 limits the applicability of the definition to "except where . . . such construction would be unreasonable," thus permitting these statutes to be construed with "writing" as an adjective. These are the statutes in Title 22 that were not part of the original 1901 criminal code that use the term "writing." D.C. Code §§ 22-3804 (filing of statement for sexual psychopaths); 22-4005 (duties of the Department of Corrections regarding sex offenders); 22-4505 (exceptions to § 22-4504, carrying pistols or deadly or dangerous weapons; possession of weapons during crime of violence); 22-3401 (use of "District of Columbia" or similar designation by private detective or collection agency); 22-3312.05 (definitions for §§ 22-3312.01 through 22-3312.05); 22-2752 (unlawful protests targeting residences); 22-2715 (abatement of nuisance under § 22-2713 by injunction-trial; dismissal of complaint; prosecution; costs); 22-3225.01 (definitions for insurance fraud); 22-4235 (administrative support for the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council); 22-2404 (false swearing); 22-2405 (false statements); 22-2714 (abatement of nuisance under § 22-2713 by injunction- temporary injunction); 22-4006 (duties of the Department of Mental Health regarding sex offenders); 22-3223 (credit card fraud); 22-3020 (aggravating circumstances for the sexual abuse offenses); 22-1319 (false alarms and false reports; hoax weapons); 22-3226.02 (application for a certificate of registration of telephone solicitor); 22-4517 (dangerous articles); 22-1510 (making, drawing, or uttering check, draft, or order with intent to defraud); 22-3803 (definitions for sexual psychopaths). The descriptive parentheticals listed here are provided for convenience of reference and may not be identical to the statute labels in the D.C. Official Code.

⁵ These are the statutes in Title 22 that were not part of the original 1901 criminal code that use the term "paper." D.C. Code §§ 22-3225.11 (limited law enforcement authority for the Commissioner of the Department of Insurance, Securities, and Banking, the Commissioner's designee, or the Commission itself); 22-3227.05 (correction of public records in cases of identity theft); 22-3241 (forgery statute using "commercial paper."). The descriptive parentheticals listed here are provided for convenience of reference and may not be identical to the statute labels in the D.C. Official Code.

Appendices to Report #1: Recommendations for Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Changes to Criminal Statutes

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The 1901 organic legislation limits the applicability of the definition to "this chapter," instead of "this title." The referenced chapter is chapter 19 of An Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3, 1901. The Act was the original criminal code for D.C., but the criminal code has been significantly expanded since 1901. As a result, many statutes in the current Title 22 that were not part of the original criminal code use the term "anything of value." Applying the definition of this term in § 22-1802 to these newer statutes may substantively affecting the law of these statutes, with the exception of the statutes in the 1982 Theft Act.
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-1802 continues to refer to "this title." The Criminal Code Reform Commission has reviewed all statutes in Title 22 that were not part of the original 1901 code or the 1982 Theft Act that use the terms "anything of value."⁶ Applying the open-ended definition in § 22-1802 does not change the scope of or conflict with these statutes.

7. D.C. Code § 22-1809. Manner of prosecutions and penalties for specified offenses.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-1809 specifies the manner of prosecution and penalties for specific offenses. The relevant language is italicized:

All prosecutions for violations of § 22-1321 or any of the provisions of any of the laws or ordinances provided for by this act shall be conducted in the name of and for the benefit of the District of Columbia, and in the same manner as provided by law for the prosecution of offenses against the laws and ordinances of the said District. Any person convicted of any violation of § 22-1321 or any of the provisions of this act, and who shall fail to pay the fine or penalty imposed, or to give security where the same is required, shall be committed to the Workhouse of the District of Columbia for a term not exceeding 6 months for each and every offense. The second sentence of this section shall not apply with respect to any violation of § 22-1312(b).

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: Subsection (b) of § 22-1312 was deleted in 2011,⁷ yet is still referenced in § 22-1809.
- c. Recommendation: Correct the discrepancy by deleting the last sentence of § 22-1809. The revised statute would read:

All prosecutions for violations of § 22-1321 or any of the provisions of any of the laws or ordinances provided for by this act shall be conducted in the name of and for the benefit of the District of Columbia, and in the same manner as provided by law for the prosecution of offenses against the laws and ordinances of the said District. Any person convicted of any violation of § 22-1321 or any of the provisions of this act, and who shall fail to pay the fine or penalty imposed, or to give security where the same is required, shall be committed to the Workhouse of the District of Columbia for a term not exceeding 6 months for each and every offense.

Deleting the reference to subsection (b) does not change current law because subsection (b) of § 22-1312 was deleted in 2011 and there is no equivalent provision in current § 22-1312.⁸

d. Additional revisions: It should also be noted that the legislation in tile 1 of Appendix IX, which enacts Title 22, strikes the language "committed to the Workhouse of the District of Columbia" and inserts "imprisoned" instead.

Part 2: Substantive Discrepancies and Recommendations.

This part of the Appendix summarizes and recommends resolutions for the substantive discrepancies between the organic legislation and the text of Title 22 in the D.C. Official Code as of April 5, 2016. Unlike the discrepancies discussed in Part I, resolving these discrepancies may change the state of the law.

Part 2.A addresses statutes with discrepancies unique to those statutes. Part 2.B addresses the use of "Mayor" and "Council" in statutes when the organic legislation originally referred to "Commissioners" or "Board of Commissioners."

⁸ The exemption for subsection (b) of § 22-1312 was added to § 22-1809 in 1953. Section 22-1312, until its deletion in 2011, read:

⁽a) It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to make any obscene or indecent exposure of his or her person, or to make any lewd, obscene, or indecent sexual proposal, or to commit any other lewd, obscene or indecent act in the District of Columbia, under penalty of not more than $300 fine, or imprisonment of not more than ninety days, or both, for each and every such offense.

⁽b) Any person or persons who shall commit an offense described in subsection (a), knowing he or she or they are in the presence of a child under the age of sixteen years, shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than one year, or fined in an amount not to exceed $1,000, or both, for each and every such offense.

As can be seen, subsection (b) of § 22-1312 had a higher possible penalty than subsection (a) of § 22-1312, with a maximum possible jail sentence of up to one year in jail, or a fine of up to $1,000, or both.

Given the higher penalty in subsection (b), it was necessary for § 22-1809 to exempt subsection (b) from the penalty provision permitting a 6 month sentence. Exempting subsection (b) of § 22-1312 ensured that the defendant was subject to the maximum penalty of one year in § 22-1809 if the defendant failed to pay a fine.

Subsection (b) was deleted from § 22-1312 in 2011. Disorderly Conduct Amendment Act of 2010, 2010 District of Columbia Laws 18-375 (Act 18-699), effective May 26, 2011. The current penalty for § 22-1312 is a maximum sentence of 90 days in jail, a maximum fine of $500, or both. Since the current penalty is less than the six months possible under § 22-1809, there is no need to exempt § 22-1312 from § 22-1809. Theoretically, a defendant convicted of current § 22-3312 who received a fine and failed to pay it could still be subjected to the higher 6 month penalty in § 22-1809.

Part 2.A: Statutes with Unique Discrepancies.

1. D.C. Code § 22-1011. Neglect of sick or disabled animals.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-1011 in its current form prohibits neglecting sick or disabled animals. The relevant language is italicized:

If any maimed, sick, infirm, or disabled animal shall fail to receive proper food or shelter from said owner or person in charge of the same for more than 5 consecutive hours, such person shall, for every such offense, be punished in the same manner provided in § 22-1001.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The statute omits "be abandoned by its owner, or" which is present in the original 1871 organic legislation.⁹
- c. Recommendation: Correct the discrepancy so that § 22-1011 includes "be abandoned by its owner, or" as it does in the organic legislation. The text in the D.C. Official Code appears to erroneously omit this language. The revised statute reads as follows:

If any maimed, sick, infirm, or disabled animal shall be abandoned by its owner, or fail to receive proper food or shelter from said owner or person in charge of the same for more than 5 consecutive hours, such person shall, for every such offense, be punished in the same manner provided in § 20-1001.

2. D.C. Code § 22-4514. Possession of certain dangerous weapons prohibited; exceptions.

a. Relevant language: Subsection (a) of § 22-4514 prohibits the possession of certain dangerous weapons, but states that "machine guns, or sawed-off shotgun, knuckles, and blackjacks may be possessed" by members of certain military branches, including "the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps of the United States." This list of institutions is the relevant language and is italicized:

(a) No person shall within the District of Columbia possess any machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, knuckles, or any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, sand club, sandbag, switchblade knife, nor any instrument, attachment, or appliance for causing the firing of any firearm to be silent or intended to lessen or muffle the noise of the firing

However, the Criminal Code Reform Commission cannot discern any change section 4 of the 1892 Act made to § 22-1011. Rather, section 4 of the 1892 Act appears to have added subsection (a) to § 22-1012. Both the legislative history and the Disposition Tables state that section 4 of the 1892 Act amended § 22-1012 as well as § 22-1011.

of any firearms; provided, however, that machine guns, or sawed-off shotgun, knuckles, and blackjacks may be possessed by the members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps of the United States, the National Guard, or Organized Reserves when on duty, the Post Office Department or its employees when on duty, marshals, sheriffs, prison or jail wardens, or their deputies, policemen, or other duly-appointed law enforcement officers, including any designated civilian employee of the Metropolitan Police Department, or officers or employees of the United States duly authorized to carry such weapons, banking institutions, public carriers who are engaged in the business of transporting mail, money, securities, or other valuables, wholesale dealers and retail dealers licensed under § 22-4510.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The official text of § 22-4514(a) includes the Air Force. The organic legislation, however, is limited in relevant part to "Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States" and excludes the Air Force.
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4514(a) includes Air Force. The omission of "Air Force" in the organic act may reflect the fact that the Air Force was not established as a separate military service department until 1947.¹⁰ By codifying a reference to the Air Force, the D.C. Official Code appears to resolve an anachronistic error in the 1932 organic statute.¹¹

Part 2.B: Use of "Mayor" and "Council" in Title 22.

For the statutes in this part of the Appendix, the organic legislation refers to early bodies of local governance in the District of Columbia, like the Board of Commissioners, which have been abolished. Contrary to the actual text of the organic act (which retains the names of the abolished forms of government), the text of the official D.C. Code replaces these references with "Mayor" and "Council of the District of Columbia."

The statutes themselves were never individually amended to reflect these changes. Instead, the authority for codification counsel to make these changes comes from the legislation that abolished the earlier bodies of local District government.¹² This legislation also establishes ¹¹ Notably, while the codification counsel appears to have fixed the omission of "Air Force" in § 22-4514, 2012 legislation fixed the omission of "Air Force" in § 22-4505(a)(3). The 1932 organic act for § 22-4505 similarly omitted "Air Force": "Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, the National Guard, or Organized Reserves when on duty." A 2012 amendment revised the statute and inserted "Air Force" so that the list now reads "Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps of the United States." whether a reference to an earlier body of government should be replaced with either Mayor or Council.

Part 2.B.i contains the statutes with the discrepancies, including those that are recommended for relocation from Title 22 (listed in Appendix V). Part 2.B.ii contains a detailed discussion of the changes in District government that are relevant to these discrepancies.

Part 2.B.i: The Affected Statutes.

1. D.C. Code § 22-4328. Council's authority with respect to wild animals.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4328 codifies the authority of the Council to legislate hunting and fishing and the taking, possession, and sale of wild animals in the District. The relevant language is italicized:

The Council of the District of Columbia is authorized to restrict, prohibit, regulate, and control hunting and fishing and the taking, possession, and sale of wild animals in the District; provided, that the District assents to the provisions of the Dingell-Johnson Sport Fish Restoration Act, approved August 9, 1950 (64 Stat. 430; 16 U.S.C. §§ 777-777n), the Pittman-Robertson Wildlife Restoration Act, approved September 2, 1937 (50 Stat. 917; 16 U.S.C. §§ 669-669k), and 18 U.S.C. § 701, including a prohibition against the diversion of fishing license fees paid by sport fishermen for any purpose other than the administration of the District's fish and wildlife agency; provided further, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the Council to prohibit, restrict, regulate, or control the killing, capture, purchase, sale, or possession of migratory birds as defined in regulations issued pursuant to the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918, as amended (16 U.S.C. §§ 703-712) and taken for scientific, propagating, or other purposes under permits issued by the Secretary of the Interior; and provided further, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the Council to prohibit, restrict, regulate, or control the sale or possession of wild animals taken legally in any state, territory or possession of the United States or in any foreign country, or produced on a game farm, except as may be necessary to protect the public health or safety. As used in this section the term "wild animals" includes, without limitation, mammals, birds, fish, and reptiles not ordinarily domesticated.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Council."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4328 continues to refer to the "Council." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix discusses, under the Home Rule Act, the "Council" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

2. D.C. Code § 22-4329. Inspection of certain business or vocational establishments.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4329 authorizes inspections of certain buildings or premises. The relevant language is italicized:

Authorized officers and employees of the government of the United States or of the government of the District of Columbia are, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and the regulations promulgated by the Council of the District of Columbia under the authority of this chapter, empowered, during business hours, to inspect any building or premises in or on which any business, trade, vocation, or occupation requiring a license or permit is carried on, or any vehicle, boat, market box, market stall, or coldstorage plant. No person shall refuse to permit any such inspection.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Council."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4329 continues to refer to the "Council." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix discusses, under the Home Rule Act, the "Council" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

3. D.C. Code § 22-4330. Seizure of hunting and fishing equipment.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4330 authorizes inspections of certain buildings or premises. The relevant language is italicized:

(a) All rifles, shotguns, ammunition, bows, arrows, traps, seines, nets, boats, and other devices of every nature or description used by any person within the District of Columbia when engaged in killing, ensnaring, trapping, or capturing any wild bird, wild mammal, or fish contrary to this chapter or any regulation made pursuant to this chapter shall be seized by any police officer, or any designated civilian employee of the Metropolitan Police Department, upon the arrest of such person on a charge of violating any provision of this chapter or any regulations made pursuant thereto, and be delivered to the Mayor. If the person so arrested is acquitted, the property so seized shall be returned to the person in whose possession it was found. If the person so arrested is convicted, the property so seized shall, in the discretion of the court, be forfeited to the District of Columbia, and be sold at public auction, the proceeds from such sale to be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the District of Columbia. If any item of such property is not purchased at such auction, it shall be disposed of in accordance with regulations prescribed by the District of Columbia Council.

(b) If any property seized under the authority of this section is subject to a lien which is established by intervention or otherwise to the satisfaction of the court as having been created without the lienor's having any notice that such property was to be used in connection with a violation of any provision of this chapter or any regulation made pursuant thereto, the court, upon the conviction of the accused, may order a sale of such property at public auction. The officer conducting such sale, after deducting proper fees and costs incident to the seizure, keeping, and sale of such property, shall pay all such liens according to their priorities, and such lien or liens shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of the sale thereof.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Mayor" and "District of Columbia Council."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy that refers to the "Mayor." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix details, under the Home Rule Act, the "Mayor" is the correct replacement for this reference to the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

However, the reference to the "District of Columbia Council" should be replaced with the "Council of District of Columbia." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix discusses, the Home Rule Act abolished the "District of Columbia Council" and replaced it with the "Council of the District of Columbia."

4. D.C. Code § 22-4332. Delegation of power under game and fish laws chapter.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4332 delineates the powers of the Council and the Mayor under the game and fish laws of the District in Chapter 43. The relevant language is italicized:

(a) The Secretary of the Interior and the Mayor, respectively, are authorized to delegate any of the functions to be performed by them under the authority of this chapter.

(b) The Council of the District of Columbia is authorized to make such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of this chapter; provided, that any regulations issued pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior insofar as they involve any areas or waters of the District of Columbia under the appropriate administrative jurisdiction.

(c) As used in this chapter the word "Mayor" means the Mayor of the District of Columbia or the appropriate designated agent or agents, and the words "Secretary of the Interior" means the Secretary of the Interior or the appropriate designated agent or agents.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Mayor" and the "Council of the District of Columbia."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4332 continues to refer to the "Mayor" and the "Council." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix details, under the Home Rule Act, the "Mayor" and the "Council" are the correct replacements for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

5. D.C. Code § 22-4333. Authority of Secretary of the Interior.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4333 maintains the existing authority of the Secretary of the Interior to control and manage fish and wildlife in the District. The relevant language is italicized:

Nothing in this chapter or in any regulation promulgated by the Council of the District of Columbia under the authority of this chapter shall in any way impair the existing authority of the Secretary of the Interior to control and manage fish and wildlife on the land and waters in the District of Columbia under the Secretary of the Interior's administrative jurisdiction.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Council."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4333 continues to refer to the "Council." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix details, under the Home Rule Act, the "Council" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

6. D.C. Code § 22-4402. Throwing or depositing matter in Potomac River.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4402 prohibits depositing specified matter in the Potomac River or its tributaries in the District. The relevant language is italicized:

(a) It shall be unlawful for any owner or occupant of any wharf or dock, any master or captain of any vessel, or any person or persons to cast, throw, drop, or deposit any stone, gravel, sand, ballast, dirt, oyster shells, or ashes in the water in any part of the Potomac River or its tributaries in the District of Columbia, or on the shores of said river below highwater mark, unless for the purpose of making a wharf, after permission has been obtained from the Mayor of the District of Columbia for that purpose, which wharf shall be sufficiently inclosed and secured so as to prevent injury to navigation.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any owner or occupant of any wharf or dock, any captain or master of any vessel, or any other person or persons to cast, throw, deposit, or drop in any dock or in the waters of the Potomac River or its tributaries in the District of Columbia any dead fish, fish offal, dead animals of any kind, condemned oysters in the shell, watermelons, cantaloupes, vegetables, fruits, shavings, hay, straw, or filth of any kind whatsoever.

(c) Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to interfere with the work of improvement in or along the said river and harbor under the supervision of the United States government.

(d) Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not more than the amount set forth in § 22-3571.01, or by imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Mayor."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4402 continues to refer to the "Mayor." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix details, under the Home Rule Act, the "Mayor" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

7. D.C. Code § 22-4510. Licenses of weapons dealers.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4510 codifies the authority of the Mayor to grant licenses for certain weapons dealers. The relevant language is italicized:

(a) The Mayor of the District of Columbia may, in his or her discretion, grant licenses and may prescribe the form thereof, effective for not more than 1 year from date of issue, permitting the licensee to sell pistols, machine guns, sawed-off shotguns, and blackjacks at retail within the District of Columbia subject to the following conditions in addition to those specified in § 22-4509, for breach of any of which the license shall be subject to forfeiture and the licensee subject to punishment as provided in this chapter:

(1) The business shall be carried on only in the building designated in the license.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can be easily read.

(3) No pistol shall be sold: (A) if the seller has reasonable cause to believe that the purchaser is not of sound mind or is forbidden by § 22-4503 to possess a pistol [now "firearm"] or is under the age of 21 years; and (B) unless the purchaser is personally known to the seller or shall present clear evidence of his or her identity. No machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, or blackjack shall be sold to any person other than the persons designated in § 22-4514 as entitled to possess the same, and then only after permission to make such sale has been obtained from the Chief of Police of the District of Columbia.

(4) A true record shall be made in a book kept for the purpose, the form of which may be prescribed by the Mayor, of all pistols, machine guns, and sawed-off shotguns in the possession of the licensee, which said record shall contain the date of purchase, the caliber, make, model, and manufacturer's number of the weapon, to which shall be added, when sold, the date of sale.

(5) A true record in duplicate shall be made of every pistol, machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, and blackjack sold, said record to be made in a book kept for the purpose, the form of which may be prescribed by the Mayor of the District of Columbia and shall be personally signed by the purchaser and by the person effecting the sale, each in the presence of the other and shall contain the date of sale, the name, address, occupation, color, and place of birth of the purchaser, and, so far as applicable, the caliber, make, model, and manufacturer's number of the weapon, and a statement by the purchaser that the purchaser is not forbidden by § 22-4503 to possess a pistol [now "firearm"]. One copy of said record shall, within 7 days, be forwarded by mail to the Chief of Police of the District of Columbia and the other copy retained by the seller for 6 years.

(6) No pistol or imitation thereof or placard advertising the sale thereof shall be displayed in any part of said premises where it can readily be seen from the outside. No license to sell at retail shall be granted to anyone except as provided in this section.

(b) Any license issued pursuant to this section shall be issued by the Metropolitan Police Department as a Public Safety endorsement to a basic business license under the basic business license system as set forth in subchapter I-A of Chapter 28 of Title 47 of the District of Columbia Official Code [§ 47-2851.01 et seq.].

- b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioners" instead of the "Mayor."
- c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4510 continues to refer to the "Mayor." As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix details, under the Home Rule Act, the "Mayor" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.

8. D.C. Code § 22-4515a. Manufacture, transfer, use, possession or transportation of certain devices.

a. Relevant language: Section 22-4515a prohibits the manufacture, transfer, use, possession, or transportation of a molotov cocktail, as well as other similar devices. The relevant language is italicized:

(a) No person shall within the District of Columbia manufacture, transfer, use, possess, or transport a molotov cocktail. As used in this subsection, the term "molotov cocktail" means: (1) a breakable container containing flammable liquid and having a wick or a similar device capable of being ignited; or (2) any other device designed to explode or produce uncontained combustion upon impact; but such term does not include a device lawfully and commercially manufactured primarily for the purpose of illumination, construction work, or other lawful purpose.

(b) No person shall manufacture, transfer, use, possess, or transport any device, instrument, or object designed to explode or produce uncontained combustion, with the intent that the same may be used unlawfully against any person or property.

(c) No person shall, during a state of emergency in the District of Columbia declared by the Mayor pursuant to law, or during a situation in the District of Columbia concerning which the President has invoked any provision of Chapter 15 of Title 10, United States Code, manufacture, transfer, use, possess, or transport any device, instrument, or object designed to explode or produce uncontained combustion, except at his or her residence or place of business.

(d) Whoever violates this section shall: (1) for the first offense, be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than 1 and not more than 5 years; (2) for the second offense, be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than 3 and not more than 15 years; and (3) for the third or subsequent offense, be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than 5 years and not more than 30 years. In the case of a person convicted of a third or subsequent violation of this section, Chapter 402 of Title 18, United States Code (Federal Youth Corrections Act) shall not apply. For purposes of imprisonment following revocation of release authorized by § 24-403.01(b)(7), the third or subsequent conviction for an offense defined by this section is a Class A felony.

(e) In addition to any other penalty provided under this section, a person may be fined an amount not more than the amount set forth in § 22-3571.01.

b. Discrepancy with the organic legislation: The organic legislation referred to the "Commissioner" instead of the "Mayor."

c. Recommendation: Keep the discrepancy so that § 22-4515a continues to refer to the "Mayor." The organic legislation was congressionally approved in 1970,¹³ under the Reorganization Plan of 1967, but before the Home Rule Act of 1973. As Part 2.B.ii of this Appendix details, under the Home Rule Act, the "Mayor" is the correct replacement for "the Commissioner" in the organic legislation.

Part 2.B.ii: Discussion of history of D.C. Government.

In order to identify whether a statute should use "Mayor" or "Council" instead of an earlier form of D.C. government like the "Commissioners," it is necessary to trace the delegation of power under that statute through two significant restructurings of District government: 1) The reorganization in 1967; and 2) The Home Rule Act.

The Reorganization of 1967

"From 1874 to 1967, the District of Columbia was governed by a three-member Board of Commissioners appointed by the President of the United States which held both legislative and executive power."¹⁴ Statutes that originated during this time refer to both the "Board of Commissioners" and "the Commissioners."

In 1967, the Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1967 ("Reorganization Plan") abolished the Board of Commissioners. In its place, there was a new "District of Columbia Council," also referred to as the "Council,"¹⁵ and a new "Commissioner of the District of Columbia," also referred to as the "Commissioner."¹⁶

The Reorganization Plan specifically transferred the powers of the former Commissioners to the new District of Columbia Council and new Commissioner. Two sections of the Reorganization Plan should be highlighted. Section 401 of the Reorganization Plan addresses the transfer of powers from the abolished Commissioners to the new Commissioner:

Sec. 401. Transfer of functions to Commissioner. Except as otherwise provided in this reorganization plan, all functions of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, including all functions of the President of that Board and all functions of each other member of that Board and including also the executive power vested therein (D.C. Code, sec. 1-218), are hereby transferred to the Commissioner of the District of Columbia. (Emphasis added).

¹³ The legislative history in the D.C. Official Code lists § 22-4515a as being codified from the July 8, 1932 An Act to control the possession, sale, transfer, and use of pistols and other dangerous weapons in the District of Columbia, to provide penalties, to prescribe rules of evidence, and for other purposes (47 Stat 654). However, the Criminal Code Reform Commission cannot find the language of § 22-4515a in the 1932 Act. Rather, the section was added to the 1932 organic act in a 1970 amendment in the District of Columbia Court Reform and Criminal Procedure Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 603).

¹⁵ Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1967, § 201.

¹⁶ Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1967, § 301.

Section 402 of the Reorganization Plan lists the specific powers of the abolished Board of Commissioners that are transferred to the new District of Columbia Council. Italics emphasize the statutes relevant to the discrepancies:

Sec. 402. Transfer of functions to Council. The following regulatory and other functions now vested in the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby transferred to the Council (subject to the provisions of section 406 of this reorganization plan):

12. CRIMINAL OFFENSES

(204) Restricting, prohibiting, regulating, and controlling hunting and fishing and the taking, possession, and sale of wild animals under D.C. Code, sec. 22-1628 [now 22-4328].

(205) Prescribing regulations regarding the disposal of property under D.C. Code, sec. 22-1630(a) (last sentence) [now 22-4330].

(206) Making, altering, and amending harbor regulations under D.C. Code, sec. 22-1701 [now 22-4401, which was repealed in 2015].

Reading Section 401 and Section 402 of the Reorganization Plan together, if Section 402 does not specifically transfer a statute to the District of Columbia Council, Section 401 transfers that function to the new Commissioner.

The Home Rule Act

The Home Rule Act of 1973 abolished the District of Columbia Council and the Commissioner that were formed under the 1967 Reorganization.¹⁷ The Home Rule Act replaced these institutions with the Council of the District of Columbia and the Mayor. Similar to the 1967 Reorganization Plan, the Home Rule Act specifically transferred power from the old institutions to the new.

The powers of the Council:

Under § 1-204.04, subject to specific limitations, any functions belonging to the former District of Columbia Council under the Reorganization Plan of 1967 are transferred to the new Council of the District of Columbia:

(a) Subject to the limitations specified in §§ 1-206.01 to 1-206.04, the legislative power granted to the District by this chapter is vested in and shall be exercised by the Council in accordance with this chapter. In addition, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all functions granted to or imposed upon, or vested in or transferred to the District of Columbia Council, as established by Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1967, shall be carried out by the Council in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.¹⁸

The powers of the Mayor:

Under § 1-204.22, subject to specific limitations, any functions belonging to the former Commissioner under the Reorganization Plan of 1967 are transferred to the Mayor:

The executive power of the District shall be vested in the Mayor who shall be the chief executive officer of the District government. In addition, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all functions granted to or vested in the Commissioner of the District of Columbia, as established under Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1967, shall be carried out by the Mayor in accordance with this chapter. The Mayor shall be responsible for the proper execution of all laws relating to the District, and for the proper administration of the affairs of the District coming under his jurisdiction or control, including but not limited to the following powers, duties, and functions \dots .

As can be seen from the above discussion, a statute's designation under the Reorganization Plan of 1967 determines whether a statutory function is delegated to the Council or to the Mayor under the Home Rule Act and in the current statutory text. None of the exceptions referenced in § 1-204.04 or § 1-204.22 affect the statutes discussed in this Appendix.

The chart and discussion on the next page summarize the delegation of authority to the Council and the Mayor through the changes in the District government.

¹⁸ D.C. Code § 1-204.04(a) (emphasis added). The grant of legislative power is very broad: Except as provided in §§ 1-206.01 to 1-206.03, the legislative power of the District shall extend to all rightful subjects of legislation within the District consistent with the Constitution of the United States and the provisions of this chapter subject to all the restrictions and limitations imposed upon the states by the 10th section of the 1st article of the Constitution of the United States.

D.C. Code § 1-203.02.

¹⁹ D.C. Code § 1-204.22 (emphasis added).

Summary:

This chart summarizes the transfer of statutory functions from the initial Board of Commissioners to the current statutes.

Of the statutes that have discrepancies with "Commissioners" or "Board of Commissioners" in the organic statutes, only two, § 22-4328 and the last sentence of § 22-4330(a), were specifically transferred to the former District of Columbia Council under Section 402 of the Reorganization Plan of 1967. Under the Home Rule Act, these statutes were transferred to the new Council of the District of Columbia and the current references to the Council of the District of Columbia are correct.

Some of the statutes that currently refer to the Council of the District of Columbia were not specifically transferred to the former District of Columbia Council under Section 402 of the Reorganization Plan: § 22-4329, § 22-4332(b), and § 22-4333. However, these statutes refer generally to the Council's authority under the Game and Fish Laws chapter to make regulations, which is established in § 22-4328 and § 22-4330 and was transferred to the new Council of the District of Columbia under the Home Rule Act. The current references to the Council of the District of Columbia in § 22-4329, § 22-4332(b), and § 22-4333 are correct

The remaining statutes, the first part of § 22-4330(a), subsections (a) and (c) of § 22-4332, § 22-4402, § 22-4510, and § 22-4515a,²⁰ were not specifically transferred to the former District of Columbia Council under Section 402 of the 1967 Reorganization Plan. By default, under Section 401 of the Reorganization Plan, these statutes were transferred to the former ²⁰ Section 22-4515a was actually enacted in 1970 under the Reorganization Plan of 1967. Thus, its organic legislation refers to "the Commissioner." It should be noted that the legislative history in the D.C. Official Code lists § 22-4515a as being codified from the July 8, 1932 An Act to control the possession, sale, transfer, and use of pistols and other dangerous weapons in the District of Columbia, to provide penalties, to prescribe rules of evidence, and for other purposes (47 Stat 654). However, the Criminal Code Reform Commission cannot find the language of § 22-4515a in the 1932 Act. Rather, the section was added to the 1932 organic act in a 1970 amendment in the District of Columbia Court Reform and Criminal Procedure Act of 1970 (84 Stat. 603).

Commissioner. Under the Home Rule Act, the Mayor replaced the Commissioner. The current references to the Mayor in these statutes are correct.

APPENDIX VII: CHARGING AND SENTENCING STATISTICS

Appendix VII provides the number of counts charged and sentenced from 2009-2014 for all offenses in the Report that the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends be substantively amended, repealed, or codified. This appendix includes all obsolete offenses recommended for repeal; all common law offenses to be codified; and all offenses identified as unconstitutional. This appendix does not include statutes that the Criminal Code Reform Commission has recommended be technically amended or moved as part of Title 22 enactment. This appendix was based on data provided by the D.C. Sentencing Commission using its Guidelines Reporting Information Data System (GRID System) received on March 10, 2014 (covering 2009-2013), and June 2, 2015 (covering 2014].²¹

²¹ It should be noted that the GRID System only includes adult information; it does not include juvenile information. It should also be noted that the Sentencing Commission gave notice in its 2015 Annual Report that some data had not been properly accounted for in previously provided data request responses: See page 33 of the D.C. Sentencing Commission and Criminal Code Revision Commission 2015 Annual Report, available at: http://scdc.dc.gov/sites/default/files/dc/sites/scdc/publication/attachments/Annual%20Report%202015%20Website%205-2-16.pdf (last accessed 10/27/16). The Sentencing Commission also has given notice that there may be data reliability and validity issues with the supplied GRID data for 2009 and misdemeanors. The Criminal Code Reform Commission has requested updated charging and sentencing data from the Sentencing Commission to confirm that the offenses identified as archaic and unused in this Report were not charged in 2010-2015, but has not yet received any data.

APPENDIX VIII: COMMENTS RECEIVED FROM ADVISORY GROUP

Advisory Group comments are listed here in the order of their receipt.

Comments of U.S. Attorney's Office of the District of Columbia on D.C. Criminal Code Commission Phase I Materials (Recommendations for Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Changes to Criminal Statutes)

Submitted Jan. 11, 2017

The U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia maintains the positions it previously has articulated in its correspondence on December 18, 2014, to the former D.C. Sentencing and Criminal Code Revision Commission, and on June 16, 2016, to Kenyan McDuffie (then chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary & Public Safety of the District of Columbia Council). In response to the request of the District of Columbia Criminal Code Reform Commission, we provide the following preliminary comments on the Phase I materials (Recommendations for Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Changes to Criminal Statutes) provided for Advisory Group review:

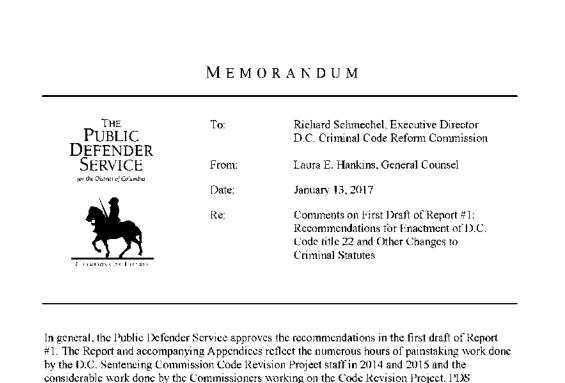

- > Page 17 (Final paragraph that begins "Enactment of Title 22..." and FN48)
 - This paragraph states that "[e]stablished canons of construction state that legislative intent is the primary principle of statutory interpretation"
 - However, this language (and accompanying text of footnote 48) relies on old cases that give legislative history more weight.
 - The current trend is to rely exclusively on the plain meaning of the text, if it is clear.
 - It is only if there is some resulting ambiguity or absurdity that the court looks to legislative history.
 - The language here, therefore, likely will not change how the District of Columbia Court of Appeals proceeds. See, e.g., In re Smith, 138 A.3d 1181, 1185 n.8 (D.C. 2016) (citing In re Al-Baseer, 19 A.3d 341, 344 (D.C.2011) ("The court's task in interpreting a statute begins with its language, and, where it is clear, and its import not patently wrong or absurd, our task comes to an end.").
- > Page 18 (Final paragraph before Section VII (Conclusion) and FN 49)
 - This paragraph states that "[b]y adopting this language in Appendix IX, the Council would explicitly reject any argument that prior court rulings construing the language of unenacted Title 22 statutes are being given tacit or explicit legislative approval through enactment."

- This refers to the prior paragraph which states that "Title 22... is enacted into law... with no substantive change to law intended except as otherwise noted in the 'Statement of Legislative Intent for Enactment of Title 22' included in this bill."
- N.B.: The court still could construe reenactment as approval, by interpreting the "intends no substantive change" language as meaning "no substantive change" to the statute as it has been interpreted by the Court at the time of enactment.

> APPENDICES

- IV: Common Law Offenses List & Text; Part 2 (Offenses w/ Only a Penalty Codified)
 - What will the basis for "elementizing" the substance of these offenses be? The Advisory Group should agree and recommend to the Commission that any such elementizing be based, as an initial matter, on the relevant jury instruction crafted by the "Redbook Committee" (to the extent that any such instruction exists) that provides guidance as to the elements of the particular uncodified offense.
- o V: Relocation of Title 22 Provisions List and Text
 - There is no objection to reorganization of various sections to reflect a more sensible structure.
 - However, the Commission should exercise great care when reorganizing evidentiary provisions (in particular) so as to avoid important provisions getting "lost" (e.g., D.C. Code Section 22-3021, regarding the inadmissibility of reputation or opinion evidence of a victim's past sexual behavior).
 - Cross-references within Title 22 -- as well as reorganization by subject, category, statute, etc., when provisions are moved to other titles -- should be employed.

#1. The Report and accompanying Appendices reflect the numerous hours of painstaking work done by the D.C. Sentencing Commission Code Revision Project staff in 2014 and 2015 and the considerable work done by the Commissioners working on the Code Revision Project. PDS particularly appreciates that the D.C. Criminal Code Reform Commission is not merely resubmitting to the D.C. Council the September 2015 report that was unanimously approved the D.C. Sentencing Commission. Rather, the Criminal Code Reform Commission has revisited its work and makes a number of additional recommendations. For example, the September 2015 report recommended deleting D.C. Code § 22-3306 as one of many archaic and unused offenses in the D.C. Code but now recognizes that such deletion may conflict with the Home Rule Act.

Report #1 is an important first step by the Commission towards the fulfillment of its mandate. Specifically, the Report and accompanying Appendices satisfy or make considerable progress towards completing the Commission's mandate that it identify criminal statutes that have been held unconstitutional and recommend their amendment; identify crimes defined in common law that should be codified; organize existing criminal statutes in a logical order; and most notably, enable the adoption of Title 22 as an enacted title of the D.C. Official Code. PDS notes however that the more important and, not coincidentally, more difficult work of the Commission is still to come. Revising the language of the District's criminal statutes to describe all elements, including mental states, that must be proven; reducing unnecessary overlap and gaps between criminal offenses, and adjusting penalties, fines, and the gradation of offenses to provide for proportionate penalties are, in the view of PDS, the most critical aspects of the Commission's mandate and must be done if the District is to have a fair, just and modern criminal justice system. January 13, 2017 Page 2

PDS suggests the following edits to the Report:

- 1. In the first sentence of footnote 16 insert a space between "to" and the section symbol, "§," for statute 36-153.
- 2. In Part A. Findings, of Section II, Technical Amendments to Correct Outdated Language,¹ change the word "discussed" to "stated," to have that sentence read, "The …Commission has identified thirty-seven statutes in eleven titles of the D.C. Code that contain outdated language within the above stated parameters." The paramaters are not "discussed" in the preceding paragraph, only outlined. Any discussion, or explanation, of the parameters would seem to be in the September 2015 report that was submitted to the Council, which the preceding paragraph references.
- 3. In Subpart 1, D.C. Code § 7-2506.01, of Part A., Findings, of Section III, Unconstitutional Statutes to Amend,² state what the extra element is. The explanation need not be in the text and can be relegated to a footnote, but the report is unnecessarily vague without it.
- 4. Delete the extra word in the text of the sentence containing footnote 50. "Established judicial canons of construction....⁵⁰ and the proposed enactment legislation in flatly states in the "Statement of Legislative Intent...."

SUBJECT:	Comments to D.C. Criminal Code Reform Commission First Draft of Report $#1$ Recommendations for Enactment and Other Changes
members of t (CCRC) wer Enactment ar	Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia (OAG) and the other the Code Revision Advisory Group of the D.C. Criminal Code Reform Commission e asked to review the Commission's First Draft of Report #1 Recommendations for nd Other Changes (the Report). OAG reviewed this document and makes the tions noted below. ¹
	COMMENTS ON THE DRAFT REPORT
	Archaic and Unused Offenses in Title 22
Appendix I, i	gh OAG does not oppose repealing the recommended provisions contained in we do not agree that just because an offense had not been charged in adult court in ars means that the offense is necessarily archaic or unused. ² was conducted under the understanding that the structure of the code revision with emembers of the Code Revision Advisory Group an opportunity to provide uput without limiting the position that the members may take at any subsequent process allow meaningful i	the Council may have on any legislation that may result from the Report.

Footnote 13, on page 7 of the Report, observes that five of the offenses proposed to be eliminated are closely related to the contemporaneous Malicious Destruction of Property statute, and therefore suggests that the legislative history of the bill associated with the Report should indicate that the current Malicious Destruction of Property statute - and therefore the codified version of it in this bill - does not automatically exclude the conduct covered by those five statutes. Since the purpose of this history appears to state the current Council's interpretation of existing law, we believe that that this observation in the legislative history may carry little interpretive weight. See, e.g., Pension Benefit Guaranty Corp. v. LTV Corp., 496 U.S. 633, 650 (1990) ("subsequent legislative history is a hazardous basis for inferring the intent of an earlier Congress") (internal quotation omitted). We, therefore, recommend that the text of the bill be amended to explicitly state that conduct that had previously been prohibited by these provisions are covered by the remaining provision.

In Appendix I, Archaic and Unused Offenses and Provisions List & Text, the Report recommends striking the phrase ", the Women's Bureau of the Police." from D.C. Official Code § 22-2703.³ OAG objects to the mere striking of the phrase and instead suggests that the phrase be replaced with a reference to the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD). D.C. Official Code § 22-2703 permits the court to impose conditions upon a person who is found guilty of engaging in prostitution or soliciting for prostitution in violation of D.C. Official Code § 22-2703 states "... The Department of Human Services of the District of Columbia, the Women's Bureau of the Police Department, and the probation officers of the court are authorized and directed to perform such duties as may be directed by the court in effectuating compliance with the conditions so imposed upon any defendant." Removal of the reference to "the Women's Bureau of the Police Department" would remove law enforcement's authorization and direction to perform certain duties. Replacing "the Women's Bureau of the Police Department" would remove law enforcement's authorization and direction to perform certain duties. Replacing "the Women's Bureau of the Police Department" would remove law enforcement's authorization and direction to perform certain duties. Replacing "the Women's Bureau of the Police Department" with a reference to MPD would modernize the language contained in this Code provision while preserving the current state of the law.

³ D.C. Official Code § 22-2703, Suspension of sentence; conditions; enforcement, states, "The court may impose conditions upon any person found guilty under § 22-2701, and so long as such person shall comply therewith to the satisfaction of the court the imposition or execution of sentence may be suspended for such period as the court may direct; and the court may at or before the expiration of such period remand such sentence or cause it to be executed. Conditions thus imposed by the court may include an order to stay away from the area within which the offense or offenses occurred, submission to medical and mental examination, diagnosis and treatment by proper public health and welfare authorities, and such other terms and conditions as the court may deem best for the protection of the community and the punishment, control, and rehabilitation of the defendant. The Department of Human Services of the District of Columbia, the Women's Bureau of the Police Department, and the probation officers of the court are authorized and directed to perform such duties as may be directed by the court in effectuating compliance with the conditions so imposed upon any defendant."

Technical Amendments to Correct Outdated Language

In Appendix II: Technical Amendments List & Text there is a list of Technical Amendments to Statutes in Title 22. See page 10 of Appendices I-VIII. Included in the list is a recommendation pertaining to D.C. Official Code § 22-811, Contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The recommendation is to strike subsection (e) delegating prosecutorial authority to the Attorney General or his or her assistants. OAG would ask that the Commission remove this recommendation. We believe that do to an early Congressional grant of authority, OAG has jurisdiction to prosecute misdemeanor offenses under this provision.

Common Law Offenses to Repeal and Further Codify

The Report recommends that the Council repeal the common law offense of "disturbing public worship." While OAG does not object to its repeal, the Report should note that D.C. Official Code § 22-1314 initially codified this offense and, upon its repeal was replaced with D.C. Official Code § 22-1321 (b). D.C. Official Code § 22-1321 (b) states, " It is unlawful for a person to engage in loud, threatening, or abusive language, or disruptive conduct, with the intent and effect of impeding or disrupting the orderly conduct of a lawful public gathering, or of a congregation of people engaged in any religious service or in worship, a funeral, or similar proceeding."

Relocation of Title 22 Provisions to Other D.C. Code Titles

The Report states, on page 15, that "In addition, § 22-4331, which codifies a penalty for violations of Game and Fish laws in Chapter 43 of Title 22 is no longer recommended for removal because it is a penalty provision. The remainder of Chapter 43 is still recommended for removal." While OAG agrees that this penalty provision should not be moved, we also believe that D.C. Official Code § 22-4329 also should not be moved. This provision makes it an offense for a person to refuse to permit an inspection.⁴ The penalty for refusing to permit an inspection is found in § 22-4331 and, so, should also be kept in Chapter 43. A conforming amendment would also have to be made to § 22-4329, similar to the conforming amendment needed for § 22-4331, that would replace the language "for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and the regulations promulgated by the Council of the District of Columbia under the authority of this chapter" with the citation to wherever the remainder of Chapter 43 is moved.

Enactment of Title 22

⁴ D.C. Official Code § 22-4329, Inspection of business or vocational establishments requiring a license or permit or any vehicle, boat, market box, market stall or cold storage plant, during business hours, states "Authorized officers and employees of the government of the United States or of the government of the District of Columbia are, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and the regulations promulgated by the Council of the District of Columbia under the authority of this chapter, empowered, during business hours, to inspect any building or premises in or on which any business, trade, vocation, or occupation requiring a license or permit is carried on, or any vehicle, boat, market box, market stall, or cold-storage plant. No person shall refuse to permit any such inspection.

The discussion concerning enactment of Title 22 indirectly cites language that is codified in the United States Code and describes the status of the D.C. Official Code. See pages 15-18 of the Report. The discussion states that Title 22 will remain a prima facie statement of District law unless it is enacted into the Code, but the discussion then references statutory language (and case language) stating that the D.C. Official Code "shall... establish prima facie the laws" of the District. 1 U.S.C. § 204(b) (cited on page16, footnote. 48). The Council's authority to enact titles of the D.C. Official Code into positive law is, to OAG's understanding, long settled, but to avoid any confusion, it may be beneficial to accompany that statutory and case cite with a brief citation to the Council's legislative power.

Page 18 of the Report quotes section 102 of the bill as saying "Fitle 22 of the District of Columbia Official Code is enacted into law to read as follows, with no substantive change to law intended, except as otherwise noted in the "Statement of Legislative Intent for Enactment of Title 22" included in this bill." The actual draft bill does not contain the italicized language and, so, should be amended accordingly.

Page 18 also discusses the significance of statements about the intent of the bill. It states that by adopting these statements, the bill would "explicitly reject any argument that prior court rulings construing the language of unenacted Title 22 statutes are being given tacit or explicit legislative approval through enactment." That is not correct. The only way for provisions of Title 22 to mean the same thing post-enactment that they meant pre-enactment is for controlling judicial constructions of their pre-enactment language to carry through into the enacted bill. Stripping away controlling judicial interpretations of a provision would be tantamount to amending that provision.

COMMENTS ON THE DRAFT BILL

The very beginning of the bill, prior to any numbered sections, includes a "Statement of Legislative Intent." A Statement of Legislative Intent would be beneficial as part of this bill's legislative bistory, but in order for it be incorporated into the bill, it should be given a section number, formatted according to the "Council of the District of Colombia Legislative Drafting Manual", and placed after the "Be It Enacted" portion.

The bill's amendment to D.C. Official Code § 50-1401.01(a)(3) would replace several references to "him" with references to "him or her." It would leave untouched, however, the final phrase "whenever demand is made by a police officer such instructor shall display to him such certificate." For consistency, this should be replaced with "to him or her."

The bill repeals D.C. Official Code § 36-153. Unauthorized use, defacing, or sale of registered vessel. The bill also makes a conforming amendment to § 36-154, Use or possession of vessel without purchase of contents prima facie evidence of unlawful use. The conforming amendment replaces the reference to § 36-153 with the penalty provision that is currently contained within that Code section. While making this conforming amendment, OAG suggests that the title to § 36-154 be amended. Once § 36-153 is repealed, § 36-154 would be a standalone Code provision. While this offense does establish when there is prima facie evidence of unlawful use, it also establishes an offense. We, therefore, recommend that the Title of this offense be shortened and renamed, "Use or possession of vessel without purchase."

APPENDIX IX: ENACTMENT OF TITLE 22 AND CRIMINAL CODE AMENDMENTS ACT OF 2017

Note: All statute texts are taken from the online LexisNexis District of Columbia Official Code. At the time this draft bill was prepared in October 2016, the texts in the Official Code were current through April 5, 2016. The text of the enacted title 22 reflects the revisions discussed in the Report #1: Recommendations for Enactment of D.C. Code Title 22 and Other Changes to Criminal Statutes (Report): 1) Repeal of archaic and unused offenses; 2) Technical amendments; 3) Amendment of statutes held to be unconstitutional; 4) Resolution of discrepancies between the text of the D.C. Official Code and the underlying organic legislation; and 5) Relocation of numerous statutes from Title 22.

Before the Council can vote on title 1 of the bill in this Appendix IX, the Council's Office of the General Counsel will need to update the bill to reflect any criminal laws or amendments that have become effective since April 5, 2016, to the date of the Council vote to enact Title 22, as well as any conforming amendments necessary to accommodate the relocated titles (discussed further on page 14 of the Report. In addition, footnotes in the bill highlight potential drafting issues for the Office of the General Counsel to review.

131	it appears and inserting the phrase "he or she" in its place.
132	3. The Council intends to make the following substantive revisions to the laws in Title
133	22. The text of Title 22 in the "Title 22 Enactment Act of 2016" reflects these revisions:
134	(1) In D.C. Official Code § 22-1011, inserting the phrase "be abandoned by its
135	owner, or", which appears in the organic legislation, but is missing from the current text of Title
136	22 in the D.C. Official Code.
137	(2) In D.C. Official Code § 22-1801, codifying the reference to "this title" even
138	though the language differs from the underlying organic legislation.
139	(3) In D.C. Official Code § 22-1802, codifying the reference to "this title" even
140	though the language differs from the underlying organic legislation.
141	(4) In D.C. Official Code § 22-1809, deleting the last sentence because D.C.
142	Official Code § 22-1312(b) has been deleted.
143	(5) In D.C. Official Code § 22-2104.01(b)(12), striking the phrase "§ 22-
144	4501(f) [now § 22-4501(4)]" and inserting the phrase in "§ 22-4501(1)" in order to cite to the
145	correct subsection in § 22-4501.
146	(6) In § 22-2701.01, codifying the reference to § 22-2704 because it corrects an
147	error in the underlying organic legislation.
148	(7) In D.C. Official Code § 22-3312.01, inserting "upon" at the end of the first
149	clause.
150	(8) In D.C. Official Code § 22-4402, codifying the reference to "Mayor"

151	because "Mayor" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.
152	(9) In D.C. Official Code § 22-4505(a)(2), codifying the reference to "that
153	section" because it clarifies the scope of the underlying organic legislation.
154	(10) In D.C. Official Code § 22-4510, codifying the references to "Mayor"
155	because "Mayor" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioners" in the organic legislation.
156	(11) In D.C. Official Code § 22-4512, striking from the second sentence,
157	"Possession of any pistol, machine gun, or sawed-off shotgun upon which any such mark shall
158	have been changed, altered, removed, or obliterated shall be prima facie evidence that the
159	possessor has changed, altered, removed, or obliterated the same within the District of Columbia;
160	provided, however, that nothing" and inserting "Nothing" as the start of the sentence.
161	(12) In subsection (a) of D.C. Official Code § 22-4514, codifying the reference
162	to "Air Force" even though the reference is missing from the organic legislation.
163	(13) In D.C. Official Code § 22-4515a, codifying the reference to "Mayor"
164	because "Mayor" is the correct replacement for the "Commissioner" in the organic legislation.
165

4053	Stalking involves severe intrusions on the victim's personal privacy and autonomy. It is a crime

7349	(8) Section 12 (D.C. Official Code § 22-1013) is repealed.
7350	(b) The Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia are amended as follows:

7351	(1) Sections 268 through 270 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-3320 through 22-3322)
7352	are repealed.
7353	(2) Sections 432 and 433 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-405 and 22-1406) are
7354	repealed.
7355	(3) Section 1806 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3318) is repealed. 2
7356	(c) Section 9 of An Act To create revenue in the District of Columbia by levying a tax
7357	upon all dogs therein, to make such dogs personal property, and for other purposes, approved
7358	June 19, 1878 (20 Stat. 174; D.C. Official Code § 22-1311), is repealed.
7359	(d) Section 3 of An Act For the protection of children in the District of Columbia and for
7360	other purposes, approved February 13, 1885 (23 Stat. 303; D.C. Official Code § 22-1101), is

7362	(e) Sections 4 and 6a of An Act to prevent cruelty to children or animals in the District

7365	(f) An Act For the preservation of the public peace and the protection of property within
7366	the District of Columbia, approved July 29, 1892 (27 Stat. 322; codified in scattered sections of 7367	the District of Columbia Official Code), is amended as follows:
7368	(1) Section 2 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3313) is repealed.
7369	(2) Section 3 (D.C. Official Code § 22-1309) is repealed.

² Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correction citation to repeal § 22-3318. D.C. Code § 22-3318 does not actually appear to be a Revised Statute of the District of Columbia. Rather, the statute appears to be a Revised Statute of the United States. See https://archive.org/stream/revisedstatutes01statgoog#page/n341/mode/2up.

However, the only other amendatory act for this statute, the Fine Proportionality Act of 2012, cites the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia as the organic act. Using the Fine Proportionality Act as a model, the current bill language cites the Revised Statutes of the District of Columbia, even though the correct organic act for citation appears to be the Revised Statutes of the United States.

³ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that the June 25, 1892 Act to prevent cruelty to children or animals in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes, is the correct organic act for § 22-1012(a). Both the print and the online versions of the LexisNexis D.C. Official Code list the legislative history for § 22-1012 as: "Aug. 23, 1871, Leg. Assem., p. 138, ch. 106, § 11; June 25, 1892, 27 Stat. 60, ch. 135, § 4; May 21, 1994, D.C. Law 10-119, § 6, 41 DCR 1639; Aug. 20, 1994, D.C. Law 10-151, § 102(b), 41 DCR 2608; June 11, 2013, D.C. Law 19-317, § 209(b), 60 DCR 2064."

However, section 11 of Chapter 106 of Acts of the Legislative Assembly only contains the text codified at § 22-1012(b). Staff found the text codified at § 22-1012(a) in section 4 of the June 25, 1892 Act, and cited this Act as the organic act for § 22-1012(a). Staff used section 11 of Chapter 106 of the Acts of the Legislative Assembly as the organic act for § 22-1012(b).

7370	(3) Section 4 (D.C. Official Code § 22-1317) is repealed.

7375	repealed.
7376	(8) Section 13 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3310) is repealed.
7377	(9) Section 14 (D.C. Official Code § 22-1313) is repealed.
7378	(10) Section 15 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3311) is repealed.

7381	(13) Section 18 (D.C. Official Code § 22-1809) is repealed.
7382	(g) An Act To punish the impersonation of inspectors of the health and other departments
7383	of the District of Columbia, approved March 2, 1897 (29 Stat. 619; D.C. Official Code § 22-
7384	1405), is repealed.
7385	(h) An Act To establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, approved March 3,
7386	1901 (31 Stat. 1189; codified in scattered sections of the D.C. Official Code), is amended as
7387	follows:
7388	(1) Section 213 (D.C. Official Code § 22-1514) is repealed.
7389	(2) Sections 798 through 802b (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-2101through 2107) are
7390	repealed.

7392	are repealed.
7393	(4) Section 807 (D.C. Official Code § 22-406) is repealed.
7394	(5) Section 810 through 811a (D.C. Official Code § 22-2801 through 22-2803) are

7397	(7) Section 813 (D.C. Official Code § 22-2704) is repealed.

7399	(9) Section 823 (D.C. Official Code § 22-801) is repealed.
7400	(10) Section 824 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3302) is repealed.

7401	(11) Section 825a (D.C. Official Code § 22-3305) is repealed.
7402	(12) Section 836a (D.C. Official Code § 22-1808) is repealed.

7408	(18 Section 851 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3301) is repealed.
7409	(19) Sections 859 and 860 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-1403 and 22-1404) are
7410	epealed.
7411	(20) Sections 863 through 869 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-1701 through 22-1708)
7412	re repealed.
7413	(21) Section 870 (D.C. Official Code § 22-501) is repealed.
7414	(22) Sections 869(e) and 869(f) (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-1713 and 22-17114)

7419	(26) Section 880 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3309) is repealed.
7420	(27) Section 891 (D.C. Official Code § 22-3303) is repealed.
7421	(28) Sections 901 and 902 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-4403 and 22-4404) are
7422	epealed.
7423	(29) Sections 904 and 910 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-1801 through 22-1807) are
7424	epealed.
7425	(i) Section 4 of An Act To enlarge the powers of the courts of the District of Columbia in 7426	cases involving delinquent children, and for other purposes, approved March 3, 1901 (31 Stat.
7427	.095; D.C. Official Code § 22-1102), is repealed.

(j) Section 845a of An Act To amend an Act entitled "An Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia," approved June 30, 1902 (32 Stat. 535; D.C. Official Code § 221402) is repealed.⁴

(k) An Act To prevent the giving of false alarms in the District of Columbia, approved
June 8, 1906 (34 Stat. 220; D.C. Official Code § 22-1319) is repealed.

(1) An Act In relation to pandering, to define and prohibit the same and to provide for the punishment thereof, approved June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 833; D.C. Official Code §§ 22–2705 through 22-2712), is repealed.⁵

(m) An Act To confer concurrent jurisdiction on the police court of the District of Columbia in certain jurisdictions, approved July 16, 1912 (37 Stat. 192; D.C. Official Code §§ 7438 22-407, 22-1301, and 22-2722), is repealed.

(n) An Act To amend section eight hundred and ninety-five of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia, approved February 3, 1913 (37 Stat. 656; D.C. Official Code § 22–4402), is repealed.⁶

7442 (o) An Act To prevent fraudulent advertising in the District of Columbia, approved May 7443 29, 1916 (39 Stat. 165; D.C. Official Code §§ 22-1511 through 22-1513), is repealed.

7444 (p) An Act regulating the issuance of checks, drafts, and orders for the payment of money within the District of Columbia, approved July 1, 1922 (47 Stat. 820; D.C. Official Code § 22-7446 1510), is repealed.

⁴ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to repeal D.C. Code § 22-1402. Both the print and the online versions of the LexisNexis D.C. Official Code list the legislative history for § 22-1012 as: "June 30, 1902, 32 Stat. 535, ch. 1329, § 845a; Aug. 20, 1994, D.C. Law 10-151, § 106, 41 DCR 2608; June 11, 2013, D.C. Law 19-317, § 217, 60 DCR 2064."

This legislative history suggests that the June 30, 1902 act is the organic act for D.C. Code § 22-1402. However, the text of the June 30, 1902 act adds § 845a to the 1901 Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia. It is not clear which of the two acts ought to be cited as the organic act.

⁵ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to repeal D.C. Code §§ 22-2710 through 22-2712. D.C. Code §§ 22-2710 through 22-2712 were added to the organic act by an amendatory act on January 30, 1941. Because the entire June 25, 1910 organic act is being repealed, the bill does not the cite the amendatory act which added those statutes.

⁶ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to repeal D.C. Code § 22-4402. Both the print and the online versions of the LexisNexis D.C. Official Code list the legislative history for § 22-4402 as: "Feb. 3, 1913, 37 Stat. 656, ch. 25; June 11, 2013, D.C. Law 19-317, § 239, 60 DCR 2064.)"

This legislative history suggests that the February 3, 1913 act is the organic act for D.C. Code § 22-4402. However, the text of the February 3, 1913 act adds § 895a to the 1901 Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia. It is not clear which of the two acts ought to be cited as the organic act. It should also be noted that the legislative history as listed in the LexisNexis D.C. Official omits the section number for this statute.

7447	(q) An Act To control the possession, sale, transfer, and use of pistols and other
7448	dangerous weapons in the District of Columbia, to provide penalties, to prescribe rules of
7449	evidence, and for other purposes, approved July 8, 1932 (47 Stat. 650; D.C. Official Code §§ 22-
7450	4501 through 22-4517), is repealed. ⁷
7451	(r) Section 8 of An Act to establish a Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole for the
7452	District of Columbia and to determine its functions, and for other purposes, approved July 15,
7453	1932 (47 Stat. 698; D.C. Official Code § 22-2601), is repealed.
7454	(s) An Act For the suppression of prostitution in the District of Columbia, approved
7455	August 15, 1935 (49 Stat. 651; D.C. Official Code § 22-2701 et seq.), is amended as follows:
7456	(1) Section 1 (D.C. Official Code § 22-2701) is repealed.
7457	(2) Section 3 (D.C. Official Code § 22-2703) is repealed.
7458	(3) Sections 5 through 7 (D.C. Official Code §§ 22-2723 through 22-2725) are
7459	repealed.
7460	(t) An Act To define the crime of bribery and to provide for its punishment, approved
7461	February 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1143; D.C. Code § 22-704), is repealed.
7462	(u) Sections 2 through 4 of An Act To prohibit the introduction of contraband into the 7463	District of Columbia penal institutions, approved December 15, 1941 (55 Stat. 800; D.C. Official
7464	Code § 22-2603.01 through 22-2603.03), are repealed.
7465	(v) The District of Columbia Law Enforcement Act, approved June 29, 1953 (67 Stat. 90;
7466	codified in scattered sections of the District of Columbia Official Code) is amended as follows:
7467	(1) Section 209(a) (D.C. Official Code § 22-2501) is repealed.
7468	(2) Section 211(a) (D.C. Official Code § 22-1321) is repealed.
7469	(w) Section 4 of An Act To revise and modernize the fish and game laws of the District
7470	of Columbia, and for other purposes, approved August 23, 1958 (72 Stat. 815; D.C. Official
7471	Code § 22-4331), is repealed.
7472	(x) An Act To prohibit the use by collecting agencies and private detective agencies of
7473	any name, emblem, or insignia which reasonably tends to convey the impression that any such

⁷ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to repeal D.C. Code §§ 22-4503.01, 22-4504.01, 22-4504.02, 22-4515a, and 22-4517. Various amendatory acts added these statutes to the July 8, 1932 organic act which codifies the other weapons statutes in chapter 45 of Title 22. Because the entire July 8, 1932 organic act is being repealed, the bill does not the cite the amendatory acts which added these statutes.

Sec. 509. Conforming amendments.

¹³ D.C. Official Code §§ 9–433.01 and 9–433.02 ("Cutting Trenches in Highways") were enacted in 2000 but are identical to immediately preceding provisions in the D.C. Official Code, §§ 9–431.01 and 9–431.02, which were enacted in 1898. The reason for this unusual duplication is unclear, as only one set of these statutes is necessary to prohibit the described conduct. The Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends repeal of the newer versions of the statutes rather than the originals from 1898, only out of concern that the 2000 version may have been enacted in error.

¹⁴ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to amend D.C. Code § 36-153. The online version of the LexisNexis D.C. Official Code list the legislative history for § 36-153 as: "Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 878c; Feb. 27, 1907, 34 Stat. 1007, ch. 2086."

Section 878c of the 1907 amendatory act adds § 36-153 to the March 3, 1901 organic act. However, the later amendatory act of 1907 is cited because the language in this act is being amended.

7763 (a) Section 15 of An Act To regulate the importation of nursery stock and other plants and plant products; to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to establish and maintain quarantine 7764 districts for plant diseases and insect pests; to permit and regulate the movement of fruits, plants, 7765 and vegetables therefrom, and for other purposes, approved May 31, 1920 (41 Stat. 726; D.C. 7766 Code § 8-304) is amended by striking the phrase "punished, as provided in § 8-305" and 7767 inserting the phrase "guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by 7768 a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding 1 year, or both such fine and 7769 imprisonment, in the discretion of the court" in its place.¹⁵ 7770

(b) Section 878d of An Act To establish a code of law for the District of Columbia, 7771 approved February 27, 1907 (34 Stat. 1007; D.C. Official Code § 36-154) is amended by striking 7772 the phrase "shall be punished as provided in § 36-153" and inserting the phrase "shall, for the 1st 7773 offense, be punished by a fine of not less than $.50 for each such vessel, or by imprisonment for 7774 not less than 10 days nor more than 1 year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and for each 7775 7776 subsequent offense by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $5 for each such vessel, or by imprisonment for not less than 20 days nor more than 1 year, or by both such fine and 7777 imprisonment" in its place.¹⁶ 7778

7779 TITLE 6. APPLICABILITY DATE; FISCAL IMPACT; EFFECTIVE DATE

- 7780 Sec. 601. Applicability.
- This Act shall apply as of [insert correct date].
- 7782 Sec. 602. Fiscal impact statement.

¹⁶ Prior to the introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to amend D.C. Code § 36-154. The online version of the LexisNexis D.C. Official Code list the legislative history for § 36-154 as: "Mar. 3, 1901, ch. 854, § 878d; Feb. 27, 1907, 34 Stat. 1007, ch. 2086."

¹⁵ Prior to introduction of an enactment bill the Criminal Code Reform Commission recommends that the Council's Office of the General Counsel confirm that this is the correct citation to amend D.C. Code § 8-304. The online version of the LexisNexis D.C. Official Code list the legislative history for § 8-304 as: "Aug. 20, 1912, ch. 308, § 15; May 31, 1920, 41 Stat. 726, ch. 217; May 16, 1928, 45 Stat. 565, ch. 572; July 7, 1932, 47 Stat. 640, ch. 443; Mar. 26, 1934, 48 Stat. 486, ch. 89; Apr. 1, 1942, 56 Stat. 190, 192, ch. 207, §§ 1-4; July 8, 1963, 77 Stat. 77, Pub. L. 88-60, § 1; July 29, 1970, 84 Stat. 570, Pub. L. 91-358, title I, § 155(a)."

The May 31, 1920 amendatory act added § 15 to the August 20, 1912 organic act. However the later amendatory act of 1920 is cited because the language in this act is being amended.

Section 878d of the 1907 amendatory act adds § 36-154 to the March 3, 1901 organic act. However, the later amendatory act of 1907 is cited because the language in this act is being amended.

In addition, the Criminal Code Reform Commission also recommends that Council's Office of the General Counsel amend the title of § 36-154 to "Use or possession of vessel without purchase" to more accurately describe the offense codified therein.
